Announced this week by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel E. Morris, was the engagement of Miss Delores Louise Morris to Jim Freeland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Freeland, Beall Lane. The wedding is to an event of May 27 at St. Mark's Episcopal church.

Miss Morris is a member of the 1950 class at Medford Senior high school. Mr. Freeland was graduated from the same school and is engaged in business with his father.

Tuesday L. H. Camp, minister of Central Point Church of Christ, accompanied Earl Downing, minister of Ashland Church of Christ, to Eugene for the sessions of the Northwest Preachers' Parliament held on the campus of Northwest Christian College April 25-27.

The annual spring concert of Central Point schools was presented last Friday evening in the high school gym. Appearing were the orchestra, the high school chorus with Ruth Powell and Lucille Harnis as soloists, the junior high band and the combined bands, orchestra and chorus.

OPEN HOUSE TO BE HELD—

All the Central Point grade and junior high school students are working hard toward the evening of May 4 at 7:30 p.m. when their work will be on display for their parents and the public to see.

The first full concert by the 63 piece junior high and grade school band, under the direction of Harry L. Meyer, will begin at 8:35 in H.S. gymnasium.

A Boy Scout display will be held in the little gym.

There will be no admission, so every one can come and share in the work of these students of Central Point schools.

F. L. CLUB—

The regular meeting of the F.L. club was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Andy Glenn, and work was done on the hope chest. Following the meeting, a late supper of Jello salad, chicken patties,
