OTHER DAYS—10 to 6

Wednesday, June 28th, members of the Girl Scout Troop No. 100, who have also been a 4H Camp Cookery club, will bring a sack lunch and meet at Faber's at 3 p.m. to go to the Fair Grounds where they will see the exhibits of the 4H Club Fair. The remainder of the afternoon will be spent at Hawthorne Park with a swim and picnic supper. In the evening they will return to the Fair for the style show.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Gregory of Oakland, California are here in the valley, visiting friends and relatives. They went to Corvallis last week-end to visit his cousin and wife Mr. and Mrs. Bob Vincent. Bob is busy this summer, working for a building contractor while Joan is employed at Montgomery Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Parsons and family are completing the moving to their new home on Williams Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Novak and Lila and Ivan left last Friday for their home in Verdigré, Nebraska, following a ten days' visit in the valley with friends and relatives. They plan to return via Idaho, where they will visit his father and sister and on to Nebraska through Yellowstone Park and the Black Hills in South Dakota.

Deanna Lowry left last Saturday for Tacoma, Washington to spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. Bud Butterfield.

Mrs. Leota Adkins and son Norman, who have been living in the E. E. Scott apartment for several months, have moved to a more spacious apartment on 7th and Maple streets. Mrs. Bernice McCue and daughter, Patricia will move into the apartment vacated by Mrs. Adkins, a little later.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bohnert left early Thursday morning to attend the funeral of Roger Yost at Corning, Calif. The services were held at 10:30 a.m. Thursday.

SUMMER FASHION

In the spring-to-summer scene, styled pearls and big hats are just as important to smart fashion as lilacs and roses are to a beautiful garden. The keynote to an ensemble may be a cartwheel chapeau of black straw, trimmed with black velvet ribbon, and enlarged by a shadow brim of fine black horsehair. The indispensable finishing touch is pearls. Elgin American's new fashion pearl necklace and earrings, above, complement the hat as well as the horseshoe neckline of the gown. The bib necklace, of pearls made on the romantic Isle of Majorca, is designed with graduated pendants of pearls tipped with pink beads; the earrings are pearls and pink beads clustered on the ear-lobe, with four showers of pearls similarly touched with pink. Pearl earrings and necklaces are selected to artfully fill in where the cropped coiffure left off and to subtly accent the strapless gowns and lower-plunging necklines.

Pearls do a lot that meets the eye in this season's picture. There is no greater complement to a summer tan than the lustrous, creamy whiteness of pearls; carefully selected to adorn the ears and throat, they emphasize sparkling eyes and pretty smiles. They are cool-looking. Pearl earrings are a must for ornamenting those ears left behind by the ascending hairdos. They are as much a part of your ensemble's make-up as lipstick is of your facial make-up. Treat them accordingly. Choose pearl earrings and necklaces which will be harmonious with or in tasteful contrast to the neckline of each gown; choose them to dress your coiffure up or down, as the occasion demands.

Mrs. Harry Folsom is here for a week or so from her home on the McKenzie River to help with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Vincent.
