STUDS WIN TWO, LOSE ONE—
 The Studs won two games from Crescent City and lost one to Brookings over the holiday weekend.
 The scores were 10 to 8 for Brookings in the first game. The Studs won the next two games 9 to 2 and 8 to 5 over Crescent City. Losing pitcher for the Studs was Gehrman and winning pitchers were Cox and Mellbye.

STUDS PLAY AT C.P. SUNDAY
 The Studs open the second half of the league schedule this Sunday at Central Point with a game against the Rogue River Chiefs.

The Studs played three games this past weekend to sharpen their batting eyes for the final half of the league schedule. The Studs collected 36 hits in their last three games and scored 25 runs. The leading hitters for the Studs are Frank Roelandt, Clarence Mellbye, Alex McDonald, Norm Lucich and Moose Blevins.

Rogue River must be stronger as they have been holding the opposition to closer scores. They held Roseburg 6 to 3 and then the following Sunday held the strong Ashland team 4 to 0. The Studs do not expect as easy a game as they had with Rogue River in the first game of the season. Anything can happen in a baseball game and usually does.

The Studs will be a full strength for this game as their leading hitter, Norm Lucich, will be back after a short honeymoon trip. This is the first home game for the Studs in over six weeks.
 Game time is 2:00 P.M. on the Central Point diamond.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Gable and daughter lavone and their niece, Joyce Teidler of Scotts Bluff, Nebraska, who have been visiting their brother and uncle, Mr. Ernest Kelly and family since June 25th, left for home July 6th. They were leaving by way of Crater Lake and the Kellys accompanied them that far. While here they all enjoyed a trip to the coast Wednesday and Thursday of last week June 28th and 29th. They spent most of the time at Crescent City and said the weather could not have been more perfect.

Mrs. Ethel McCoy and son Ted returned Thursday of last week from a visit among relatives in southern California. While there they enjoyed a trip to Catalina Island.

Mr. Edward Jones has returned home from Corning, Calif., where he attended the funeral of his son-in-law, Roger Yost, but Mrs. Jones will remain with their daughter, Marjorie for awhile as she needs to be with her now.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Thompson and son Jon spent Monday July 3rd picnicking at Woodruff Meadows.

The Central Point Grange will meet Friday evening and the Lecturer announces a varied program.

NOW IN OUR 86TH YEAR

YOUR INTEREST ON SAVINGS INCREASED

50%

Savings accounts in this bank now earn 50% more interest. Savings depositors receive 1 1/2% on all savings up to and including $10,000.00, and 1% on any amount over $10,000.00.

Savings deposited on or before July 10 will draw this increase in interest as of July 1. This applies to both new and existing accounts. More reason than ever why it pays to Save First.
