STUDS TO STATE MEET

For the first time in the history of Central Point, this city will be represented in the semi-pro state baseball tournament to be held at Silverton beginning July 18th to August 4th.

Manager Hoosier Hoffard has assembled one of the best semi-pro teams this section of Oregon has had for many seasons. The showing made by the Studs at the state tournament will prove the strength of this team as compared to former good semi-pro ball clubs from Southern Oregon.

The dates the local team will play at the tournament will be announced later.

STUDS TO PLAY HERE SUN.

The Central Point Studs meet the Grants Pass Merchants on the Central Point diamond this coming Sunday at 2:00 P.M.

This is the last home appearance for the Studs before they leave this coming week for their first Oregon State semi-pro tournament game. The Studs will try to notch their seventh league win for the season this Sunday. The Studs have won 12 out of 14 games for their total season's record.

Big Paul Gehrman and Clarence Mellbye will probably share mound duties for the Studs against Grants Pass. Big Lefty Martindale will hurl for the Merchants with Manager Friend doing the receiving.

The Studs edged the Merchants 7-2 in their first league encounter at Grants Pass earlier in the season.

GEHRMAN HURLS A NO-HITTER

With big Paul Gehrman hurling no hit and no run ball for nine innings, the Central Point Studs walloped Rogue River 7-0 last Sunday afternoon on the Central Point diamond.

Gehrman struck out 14 Rogue

River hitters and allowed only one ball to be hit out of the infield, which was caught by left fielder, Norm Lucich.

Run scoring was started by Norm Lucich, who drove a long inside the park homerun for the first run of the game in the second inning. The hitting for the day was featured by Norm Lucich and Frank Roelandt with two hits apiece, and by Paul Gehrman who socked three solid singles. A total of 12 hits were garnered by the Studs.

SEMI-PRO TOURNAMENT SET FOR PLAY JULY 18th.

The Oregon State semi-pro baseball tournament, which opens at Silverton the night of July 18th, has drawn 16 of the top nines of the state. Every section of Oregon will be represented in the double-elimination affair.

Teams to compete for the state crown include Albina Fuel and the Archer Blower & Pipe Co. from Portland; Central Point Studs, Molalla, Mt. Angel, Roseburg, Corvallis, Forest Grove, McMinnville, Gaston, Banks, Prineville, U.S. Naval Station from Astoria, Silverton, Eugene and Reedsport.
