

House Guests Visit Hedgepath Home

Mr. Floyd Hedgepath's sister Mrs. Lenore Cowden from Phoenix Arizona and a friend have been visiting the Hedgepaths' family this past week. The family had not seen Mrs. Cowden for nearly fourteen years, and it was a happy occasion to have her in their home at this time. Last week Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hedgepath and Glen took Mrs. Cowden and her friend to see Mr. Hedgepath's son, Lewis and family and their daughter Dorothy and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nabb who live in Corvallis Oregon. Upon their return to this city, they brought their little granddaughter, Edna Kay Hedgepath with them for a visit.

Tuesday, Aug. 1st, Mr. Hedgepath and his sister, Mrs. Cowden received the sad news that their brother in Los Angeles was very ill, and is not expected to live.

Pee Wee Baseball—

Next week will find the Central Point Pee Wees meeting two of the toughest teams in the Southern Oregon Pee Wee Baseball League. On Monday at 7:00 p.m. both the Junior Pee Wee and the Pee Wees will play the teams from Phoenix at the high school stadium; Wednesday the teams from Medford will be here to play.

This week's games resulted in only one win as the juniors beat Ashland Monday evening there, 10-9, while the Pee Wees lost 7-8. Wednesday evening saw both teams suffering defeats at the hands of Talent, the juniors 0-4 and the Pee Wees, 4-5.

Flies Here for Visit

Miss Barbara Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Rose arrived by plane from Redding, California last Saturday for a ten days visit with her grandmother Mrs. Jim Clark. While here Barbara will also visit her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Abbott and her great-grandmother, Mrs. Mary Moore.

Fish Of The Week

As was expected, Reverend Swank took the prize last week with his mammoth 30½ inch rainbow caught at Rocky Point. At press time the largest this week was a 19-inch rainbow hooked by Gay Anderson at Diamond Lake. Wisely's display the entered fish for at least an hour so remember to take your big ones in.

Returns From Montana

Milo Turner, who lives on Bush Street, just returned from a two weeks visit with relatives in Montana. Milo made the trip by car and reported the roads in excellent condition.

Wonderful Words

Wonderful words, good and true,
Many times are given you.
When skies are gray and the path
seems long God's shining light comes through like a song.
So always remember with good
comes the light,
And the truth brings everything right.

Wonderful words of comfort and
cheer,
These we can give with never a
fear,
For as we journey along life's way,
If we will but listen we also can say—
Wonderful words.

Veva Hill, Central Point

Visiting at the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bartley were Reverend and Mrs. W. R. Willey of Truro, Iowa. They left Tuesday on the return trip home after a ten days' stay during which time they and the Bartleys visited Crater Lake, the Oregon Coast, the Gladiali Festival at Grants Pass and other places in the Rogue valley.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Caster and sons, John and Toad left Sunday morning for Tillamook where Mr. Caster will attend a week's school for Veterans' Agricultural teachers. The families are being housed in barracks there and will enjoy a vacation while the teachers work. The Casters plan visiting in Portland and other points in the Willamette valley before returning home.
