

Locals

The Danielson family, who have been living on Alder Street in the Henry Mueller house, have moved to Medford to make their home on West 11th Street. Mrs. Danielson is employed in the office of the Rogue Valley Creamery.

Mrs. Eunice Jones had the misfortune to step on a nail and it required the assistance of two ladies to remove it from her foot. She was given tetanus shots immediately. Her daughter, Evelyn, is still confined to the house recovering from an attack of blood poisoning.

The 4H Garden Club girls returned from the Fair Monday evening well-pleased with the results of their entries in the rose and flower garden project. First prizes were won by Vickie Noel and Donna Lavin; seconds by Sandra Straus and Barbara Swanson; and a third prize by Evelyn Jones. The arrangement demonstration team was Vicki Noel and Sandra Straus. The report is to be given later.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fleischer are Mr. and Mrs. M.M. Winans of Seattle, Washington. Mrs. Winans is Mrs. Fleischer's sister; Mr. Winans is the financial editor of the Seattle Times. Mrs. Fleischer spent the summer in Seattle where she attended the summer sessions of the University of Washington.

On her tenth birthday, August 22, Betty Wilson was honored at a party in the Central Point park. The guests played games followed by serving of birthday cake, jello, and iced chocolate. Guests were Melva Jo Mays, Mary Medley, Louise Pendleton, Sally Pepper, Judy Singleton, Marilyn Wisely, and John and Ruth Ann Wilson.

Mrs. John Walch, of Lake Creek, and two daughters—Betty Lou and Shirley—are visiting for a few days with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Walch, who live in the Ayer's apartment.

Mrs. Beva Lezama and children—Dick, Gay, and Warren—of Chicago arrived recently and visited at the Cliff Smith home. They will also visit Mr. and Mrs. Clare Eaton, of Crater Lake Highway Medford.

The Central Point community was shocked to hear of the death of Earnest Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Parker, 404 Laurel Street, who passed away at the Vancouver, Washington veterans' hospital. Earnest had spent most of his life in Central Point, going through school here. Deepest sympathy is extended the family.

by the FL girls. Mrs. Burkhart presented each girl with a beautiful corsage. Visitors Jean McKay, and Mrs. Robert Rivett also received corsages.

An invitation from the Ashland lodge for their 50th anniversary party was read, and plans were made to attend the event.

A short memorial service was held for the late Sarah Vincent, who was a member of the lodge for many years.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Andrew Glenn, Mrs. Dee Booth and Mrs. William Musty.
