The regular meeting of the Federated Funsters will be Monday evening at 7:45 p.m. in the grade school gym. Joe Hausler will be in charge of the program for the evening. All members are urged to be present as a proposed constitution will be discussed at that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Gay Anderson returned home late Sunday evening from a business trip to Salem. Some difficulty was experienced with the high water, forcing them to return by the Rogue River road.

The American Legion Auxiliary met on November 9 with twelve members and three visitors present. The next meeting will be Thursday, Dec. 14th. This time all members are urged to be present as special plans are to be made for the Christmas program to be put on for the men at the Camp White Domiciliary.

Last Thursday evening members of the Sewing club met at the home of Mrs. Robert Webb on the Applegate. The Christmas party of the group is to be next Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. C. W. Anhorn.

The Charles Jantzers had a close call with a fire last Thursday evening. When the lights went out, a connected iron was forgotten, and all the members of the family left for different social events, while the lights were still out. On returning home later, Mr. Jantzer found the iron had burned through the ironing board and on through the floor.

Last Saturday Miss Karen Bates, 5, daughter of Richard Bates, Central Point had her tonsils removed at the Osteopathic clinic.

Ben Little, who recently underwent surgery at a Medford hospital, returned home this week.

A stork shower was held for Mrs. Birch Scrivner, (nee Barbara Powell) last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Rolph Hansen. A goodly number attended and she received many lovely gifts. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Keith Lawton has gone to Crescent City to be with her husband, who is employed there. She left last Thursday, Nov. 30th. Mrs. Lawton had spent the previous month with Mrs. Oscar Minnick, while she was convalescing.

Mr. Tom Mast of the Union Service station, received a long distance telephone call early Tuesday morning from his mother, Mrs. T. R. Mast, of Davenport, Iowa stating that his father's mother (his grandmother) Mrs. T. R. Mast Sr., of Foreman, Ark., had passed away Monday evening of a heart attack.

Mrs. Ella Phillips has been on the sick list for the past week, but is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. James Minnis and three children of Jacksonville, who have been visiting relatives in Arkansas, returned Sunday, arriving in Central Point at Mrs. Minnis' parents home, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Houston at 2 A.M. tired but happy to be here. They drove from Tonapah, Nevada since Saturday morning and being one of the last cars through the flood district of California. On the trip to Arkansas they were just a half hour ahead of the flooded roads at Baker, California. It just goes to show, we might be worse off here in our valley.

Mrs. Leonard Freeman attended a four square dancing party given by Mr. and Mrs. George Howard at the lovely pioneer rooms of the Jackson Hotel. The other host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, managers of the hotel. About 75 guests were in attendance. Mrs. Freeman went with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mayfield, as Mr. Freeman was unable to go due to a severe cold.

Mrs. Griffin, wife of Dr. Griffin of this city, left Friday evening by train for the East.

4-H club leaders of Jackson county held their annual banquet at Roxy Ann Grange hall Wednesday, Dec. 6th. A large crowd was in attendance and a fine program put on by Dr. and Mrs. B. R. Elliott, who showed their colored pictures of their world trip and Helen Gordon's class in dancing gave several fine numbers. Also attending from here were Donna Nealon, and Mrs. Frank Meyer of Table Rock district, also Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Skyrman, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Snook, Mrs. O. T. Wilson, Mrs. Evelyn Straus and Mrs. Naomi Childress.

Mrs. Harley Dressler entertained her pinocle club at dinner at Phelps' cafe, north of Central Point. Guests were Mesdames Lester Higginbotham, Oliver Obenchain, Roberta Gregory, James Campbell, Victor Noel, Raymond Anders and the hostess Harley Dressler. After dinner they returned to Mrs. Dressler's home at 414 Arcadia, Medford where they finished the evening playing cards.

Mrs. Ted Silkwood was taken to the hospital Friday evening.

HIGHLY HONORED—

Charles H. Jones, Ford salesman for Busch Motor company, Ashland, was honored this week when he received a letter from C. J. Powell, District Sales Manager, Ford Motor company in Richmond, California, notifying him of his membership in the Ford "300" club. Few salesmen of the Ford Motor company rate this honor, as it requires salesmanship and tireless effort to secure the sufficient points.

Mr. Jones, who went to work for Busch Motors in April, is to receive the "300" club pin—a gold pin with a ruby setting.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones, formerly residents in the R. J. Pfaff apartment, moved last Friday to their new home at 308 Harrison street, Ashland.

Mrs. Les Bigham attended an executive meeting of the Jackson county council of Parents and Teachers Wednesday afternoon at the home of its president, Mrs. Frank Van Dyke. Plans were made for the January meeting of the council.

Mrs. Eunice Armstrong has returned to her home in Pendleton, after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Musty.

Word was received from Mrs. Frank Homer of Springfield, Colorado that Mr. Homer was entering the Presbyterian hospital in Denver, Colorado, where he was to be operated on for cancer of the bladder. Many friends here will remember them as they owned and lived in the home next to Mrs. Cordie Burns. They still own a part of the place here.
