Mr. Vic Milne, President of the "Medford Plan" explained that plan, each be awarded the Norge Cook and that Weatherby has phoned Mr. Frank Bash, President of the Book. Medford Community Chest, talked on the method of that organizations disbursement of Funds, and M: George Flanagan, of the Elk Lumbe. Co., explained the whys and wherefores of his plants "Charity Day," in which each employee is asked to work one eight hour shift each year for charity, thus eliminating about twelve drives a year for charity.

All these plans were discussed and questions answered by the speakers, thus giving the representatives a full and complete story of the different plans.

It was recommended by the speakers, that Central Point organize their own Community Charity Fund, with a local Board of Directors, to supervise the collections and disbursements of all funds donated by the residents of this area, in order to give a more equal distribution of the funds to these agencies who are listed as legitimate organizations.

Mayor Don Burelson acted as chairman of the meeting and introduced the speakers. He will appoint a committee to investigate the planfurther and bring to the residents more complete report, after this report is received, there will be another meeting called to adopt a Community Charity Fund for the Central Point area.
