

LOCALS

New Years Day guests at the Bob Kincaid home were their daughter, Jean and husband and small son, Lee, their son Robert and Miss Joan Bruce of Medford and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Freeman and daughter Jan.

Stanley Parrish made a business trip to Frisco last week and while he was so close he attended the Rose Bowl game at Pasadena. Then he visited his folks at Los Angeles. He is expected home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Leffler, son Harold and James Higinbotham and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Williams of Ashland attended the Oregon State-Northwestern game at Corvallis on New Years Eve. Christine Williams spent the holidays with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Langston while her parents were away.

Mrs. Zoe Hill Brandon and small son have been in Central Point, visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hill. Her husband is attending Intelligence school in Denver, Colorado. She is soon to leave to go back to her home in Seattle, as he has nearly completed his course.

Charles Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Taylor, has been at home on furlough for the last two weeks from the Navy. His ship, the Yancy, has been in dry dock but will soon be out. It is a transport ship and is expected to sail soon for Japan. Chas will be out of the Navy in April.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Stone and daughters, Gayle and Neala, were in Portland for the Christmas holidays, visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Motes and children, Sally and Clifford were visitors in Central Point during the holidays. Mr. Motes is attending Simpson Bible Institute at Seattle, Washington. They were happy to be back here to see friends and relatives.

Among those entertaining at a New Year's Watch party was Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCoy of Shady Cove. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jantzen, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Smith of Central Point and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Langston of Medford. The evening was spent in visiting and refreshments were served.

Mrs. Ethel Huitt of Gold Beach enjoyed Christmas holidays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Huitt. She returned home before New Year's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Powell took Mrs. A. E. Powell to Blue Lake, California where she will visit her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Jolley. She expects to be gone a few weeks. Mr. Powell reports much snow over the mountains requiring use of the tire chains and reports that Mrs. A. E. Powell took the trip very well.

Mr. J. J. Swain returned to his office in Portland, on Tuesday evening, after spending the Christmas and New Years holidays at his home at 617 North Riverside in Medford.

Notes and Comments

The trouble with most community and civic campaigns is that the preliminary arrangements wear out the workers.

A sense of humor, and the habit of laughing at yourself when nobody is looking, makes for a well-seasoned individual.

Organizations exist very largely for the benefit of the organizer. The suckers get the enthusiasm and the leaders get the cash.

The customs of youth and old people change with the passing years, but it is very difficult for some older people to get the idea.

Man boasts of his intelligence but he doesn't know anything much, as yet. Maybe, in a few thousand years, the human race will be getting somewhere.

Those who continually complain that the farmer is getting rich might move out into the country and share the spoils but, curiously, the trend is in the other direction.

When you're hunting birds these days, remember that those you see were spared by sportsmen who stopped shooting when they had the limit, last year, or earlier this year.

NEW BUILDING—

While the number of 1951 dwelling units begun by private and public builders passed the million mark in November, the total for the first eleven months of the year, 1,022,600 was well under the 1,302,400 for the same period in 1950. Private builders started 952,500 units in the first 11 months.

CATTLE CURIOUS—

Fairlop, England—Families living in a trailer camp near this village recently complained of faces at the windows and hearing strange noises during the night. Investigation disclosed that the countenances and sounds were curious cattle left to graze in a nearby field.

FAMILY AFFAIR—

Camden, N.J.—The Samuel M. Langston Manufacturing Company is just "one big family." Of the 363 workers employed by Bryant W. Langston, head of the company, thirty-five are fathers and sons, forty-six brothers, twenty-nine brothers-in-law, fifteen sons-in-law and twenty-three cousins.

TOO SOFT-HEARTED—

Princeton, W. Va.—Fred Hartan resigned his job as Mercer county's dog-catcher because: "I am unable to collect tax from a widow or take a pet dog from crying children."

BOY GETS FIRST DEER—

Pittsburgh, Pa.—Thomas Wilson, 14-year-old Corapolis, boy, spotted a eight-point buck out of his bedroom window. He grabbed his trapper's and rifle, ran barefooted into the yard and brought down the buck with one shot. He was the first hunter to kill a deer in Pennsylvania this season.
