

Large Crowd Attends Republican Rally

One of the largest crowds ever recorded was noticed at the Republican Rally held at the West Side school May 12.

There were candidates for all officers presented at the rally, with the exception of District Attorney Dehaviland, who didn't show up. (Editor's note: It pays to attend those rallies.)

Mrs. Lou Conger won the prize for the beautifully decorated lunch box.

Mr. Alfred Carpenter was the high bidder on the auction of the lunch box.

The auctioning was under the skillful work of Mr. Johnny Niedermeyer.

Dr. Vogle, who is a candidate for the office of coroner and incidentally won the republican race over Mr. Morris of the Conger-Morris Funeral, was present at the West Side School building and proudly said that he was an alumni of the West Side School when a boy.

The Rally, as a whole, was a grand success.

The Rally was sponsored by Republican Headquarters, Precinct No. 65.

NEW YORK—Here's a modern young artist who dabbles in the new school of painting. Her crayon-bright sundress, made from new and sensibly priced fashion plain shades by Fruit of the Loom, is scalloped across the bodice and buttoned bolero. This charming dress, featured in the current issue of Simplicity Pattern Book, was home-sewn for approximately two dollars from Simplicity Pattern 3499.

National Editor to Speak at State Home Ec Meet

Miss Laura Lane, associate editor of Country Gentlemen magazine, will speak June 2 at the banquet of the Oregon Home Economics Extension Council during its annual meeting June 2 and 3 at Oregon State college, announces Mrs. Azalea Sager, state home economics extension leader.

Also featured on the banquet program will be the Benton county homemakers' "Beauty Shoppe Quartet," an illustrated talk on modern houses by H. R. Sinnard, head of the OSC architecture department, and music by the Lane county homemakers' "Kitchen Band."

More than 175 homemakers, past home extension committees, are expected to attend the conference. Mrs. E. E. Kilpatrick, Merrill, is OHEEC president.

Now Is The Hour

Another of those grand Veterans Hours By the Meyers-Holland Post 129 again and from what we hear from the grapevine, this will be something swell for the men.

A musical treat you can't beat is also on tap tonight. a pat on the back to Carl Wayne, here adding to our delight.

Then there is Arlene, our own Hula Dancer, that comes to us like a Hawaiian dream. You guys better take off your glasses, or you'll miss half the show by steam.

The Vickie Young Trio from the "Y" club, I've heard on several radio shows, and if there as beautiful as their voices, believe me there won't be any snobs.

The Mischords Triple Trio from Crater High and Mischords is a misquote I know. We saw them before and we all adore, for these gals the gang will go.

To Don Safford and his lovely flame, and all the beautiful gals and swell men, we say thanks a million, from the vets, Meyers-Holland Post did it again.
