on hair fern around the wedding cake and punchbowl. Mrs. Arnold Bohnert and Mrs. John Bohnert, aunts of the bride, served the cake while Mrs. Harry Dunn and Mrs. Roger von der Hellen, aunts of the bride, were at the punch table. Mrs. L. C. Gorden presided at the table for the groom's cake. During the reception, Mrs. Conrad was at the piano. Mrs. Don Bohnert and Mrs. Robert Dunn had charge of the gifts. Mrs. L. G. Gentner decorated the church and had charge of the flowers.

Following a honeymoon to San Jose, California via the coastal route, they will make their home on Taylor road. For a going away costume, Mrs. Benston had a gray suit with red accessories.

The bride was graduated from Srater high school in June while the bridegroom who attended Central Point high school, is employed at Rogue River Valley creamery.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. George Lotes of Fresno, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hathaway of Visalia, Calif., and Mrs. Harry Wortman of Willows, Calif.

Jewett-Snook--

In a setting of white gladioli, fern and candelabra with white tapers, Miss Laura Janet Jewett became the bride of Gene Burel Snook at the First Methodist church of Medford last Saturday evening, August 16. Rev. Hardwick W. Harshman officiated for the double-ring ceremony. Rosettes of small wedding bells, white ribbon and gladioli marked the aisle for the bridal procession.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Jewett while Mr. Snook is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Snook, route 2.

Mr. Jewett gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown was of white marquisette and lace over taffeta and was fashioned entrain. A tiara of lace and pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis, centered with an orchid.

Miss Marjorie Jewett, who was maid of honor for her sister, wore a gown of yellow printed organdy with Juliet cap and mitts to match and carried a bouquet of matching tulle and gladioli. As junior maid of honor, Miss Sandra Jewett, niece of the bride, wore a miniature copy of the gown worn by the maid of honor and carried the rings with her bouquet.

Bridesmaids were Misses Esther and Patricia Snook, sisters of the groom and Mr. William Matejka who wore similar dresses of blue and pink organdy and carried bouquets of matching gladioli. Misses Grace and Sharalee Jewett, nieces of the bride, wearing dresses of pink organdy, were flowergirls.

Best man for his brother was Stanley Snook of the U.S. Army stationed at Fort Lewis, Washington. Ushers were John Cunningham, Kenneth Trautman and William Matejka while assistant ushers were Richard and Alan Jewett of Medford and Hal Jewett of Springfield, all brothers of the bride.

Lighting the candles preceding the ceremony were Miss Elizabeth Gilbert of Salem and Miss Mary Jo Ewell of Portland, roommates of the bride at Willamette university. At the organ was Dr. Franklin B. Launer of Columbia, Missouri. Miss Coralie Doughton of Salem sang "Because", "At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer", accompanied by Dr. Launer.

For the reception which followed the ceremony, the church parlors were decorated with pink gladioli and Esther Reed daisies. Mrs. Alan Jewett cut the cake and Mrs. Richard Jewett and Mrs. Hal Jewett served the punch. The three-tier wedding cake, baked by Mac McCoy of Grants Pass, cousin of the bride, was decorated with a bridal couple and pink sugar roses, and surrounded by tiny rosebuds and maiden-hair fern. The tables were arranged with pink organdy cloths and pink rope tapers. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Everett A. Faber, Miss Anita Walker, Miss Colleen Snook, Miss Muriel Swing and Miss Marion Smith, queen of eBthel No. 38, Job's Daughters.

Miss Patsy Faber had charge of the guest book while Miss Suzanne Lovely of Portland and Miss Sally Cooney of Medford were at the gift table.

The bride who had lived in Central Point all her life, is a graduate of Central Point high school and attended Willamette university last year. The bridegroom, who attended Central Point high school with the class of '48, is employed at the Elk Lumber company.

Immediately following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Snook left for Lake Louise and Banff, and Mrs. Snook chose a lavender suit with black accessories for traveling. On their return, they will be at home at 412 Crater Lake avenue, Medford.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Herman Clark, Mrs. Marie Putnam and Mrs. Alma Shipley of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. Jewett and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Walker and Anita and Phil of Portland; E. L. "Lin" Harris of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Hal Jewett and daughters, Grace and GiGadys Ann of Springfield; Mrs. Doughton and Coralie of aSlem; Mr. and Mrs. Tinkham Gilbert and daughters, Elizabeth, RoseMary and Ann of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Ewell and Mary Jo and Miss Lovely of Portland; and Dr. and Mrs. Franklin B. Launer of Christian College, Columbia, Missouri.
