

OSC Choir to be Heard On MBS Radio Network

Oregon State College—The Oregon State college capella choir's performance of Roy Ringwald's "Song of America" will be carried on the eastern and midwestern network of the Mutual Broadcasting System Sunday afternoon, November 2, from 12 to 12:30. Robert B. Walls, head of the OSC music department, has been informed.

The half-hour program of this patriotic cantata will be one of the MBS college choir and glee club series. The same program is expected to be released later for broadcast by the Mutual-Don Lee western network.

The OSC choir of 48 voices was the first non-professional choir in the west to perform "Song of America." It gave 10 performances of the cantata in various Oregon cities last spring. The Mutual system has invited the OSC choir to participate in the same series next spring.

Professor Walls is director of the choir. Professor Joseph Brye and Shirley Powell of Corvallis are piano accompanists and Maurice Deller of Klamath Falls is narrator.
