

Locals

John Heberling writes that he is enjoying his work as minister of the church at Fowler, although he does find it a big job. He hopes to be home for a week in early September.

Bob and Elaine Vincent, children of Mr. and Mrs. James Vincent, are visiting here from San Bernardino, California. They are guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Vincent. They are also visiting with their aunts and uncles.

Last Thursday John Bohnert, Bob Field, and Rodger vander Hellen made a trip to Fish Lake and then on Friday, Mr. and Mrs. vander Hellen and daughters, Joan and Carol returned to the lake for two days. They all reported good luck.

Mrs. Adena Benson, who has been suffering for the last two weeks with a blood clot on her leg, is making steady recovery and is able to be up some of the time. It will still be a few weeks before she will be able to be out.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Field and Mrs. Frank (Flossie) Boone are spending this week at Union creek. These two ladies spend a week each summer camping at various places.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Lisenbee of Barston, California are guests of the L. C. Lisenbee family. They are the parents of L. C. Lisenbee.
