

NEWS OF CAMP WHITE AND OUR VETERANS

DEL MONROE, our head waitress is back from a week's much needed rest. We're glad.

Del drove to Seattle for a visit with her son who is stationed there with the Air Force. Del also has a sister in Seattle. Mrs. Monroe states she had a very pleasant trip. Nice weather all the while.

SEVERAL NEW MEMBERS attended the meeting of A.F.G.E. lodge Thursday, March 25. Eight new members joined at this time. After the meeting was adjourned, refreshments were served.

We would like all of our Civil Service Employees to join and make our lodge membership 100%. Come on, let's try!

HELGA HOGSTROM has entered the Sacred Heart hospital for another operation. Here's hoping that she will be back with us in a short while. Helga has been working in the Camp White dining room for some time now and has many friends here. Get well fast, Helga.

Infirmary News—

During the past week these members were admitted to the infirmary:

Chauncey Page, Robert Wood and Albert Millis.

Peter Paulsen was transferred to the VA Hospital in Portland.

The following named men have been recently discharged.

Lewis White, Cleo W. Bradwell, Thos. Chaney, Wm. Crerer, John Allen, Clifford Beushaw, Geo. W. Flury, Rankin Melin, Stephen Decker, Nolbe Watts, Wm. Tusch, H. V. Millsapp and Geo. Hauge.

Mrs. Viola Westover, hospital aide, is on her annual leave.

3-day Assembly To Be Held at Medford

The Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York will sponsor a three-day assembly of Jehovah's witnesses in Medford April 2-4. The convention, which will be held in Merrick's ballroom, 112 North Riverside ave., is for Bible instruction and concentrated gospel preaching in this area, spokesmen for the group announced today.

Mr. J. W. Mather, presiding minister of the local congregation which meets at the Kingdom hall, 31 North Grape st., said that all three-days of the assembly will consist of morning, afternoon and evening sessions of Bible talks, discussions, and demonstrations which are open to the public without any charge.

A similar circuit meeting of the group was held six months ago in Yreka, California, with an attendance of more than 1,000. It is expected that more than 1,200 from the 22 congregations located in Southern Oregon and Northern California will attend the conclave in Medford.

Mr. J. B. Mackey, chairman of rooming committee, announced that many requests for rooms have been received and are being filled by the local motels and hotels with some of the ministers staying in private homes.

Mr. L. E. Reusch of Brooklyn,

New York, will be the featured speaker. He will appear on the program all three-days and will deliver the main public address "Is Civilization's End Near?" at 3 p.m., Sunday, April 4.

Frank Koch, who is stationed with the army at Ft. Ord, California, visited friends and relatives here last week end. Mrs. Koch (Nancy Hunter) is employed as a teacher at the army base.
