

Around Our Town

By Our Hoving Reporter

News has been received that Jean Faunlander, a former high school student here, has recently joined the Women's Air Force. The Faunlanders now live at Eugene. They owned a home on west Scenic Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob King, who were recently married and were to appear on the T.V., "Bride and Groom," show learned that they would have had to have gone to New York for the show and found that they couldn't make this trip. They returned to school last Monday.

"Horace" the horse with the personality that appeared on T.V. Tuesday night during the commercial for the show "The Big Play Back"—was really the lady announcer's son John Champ and a little neighbor boy of the Champs.

Peto Thompson and Rena Wright, Crater High students, were married last Saturday in Reno, Nevada. Their marriage was announced at a party Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Henry and Janice and Mrs. Charlie Cox and children left last Friday afternoon and spent the week end in Baker visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Singley and sons. On their return trip, they visited in Payette, Idaho with friends. The Henrys reported that they drove for many miles through snow and fog.

Leo McIvor, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob McIvor, is out again and feeling fine after having a recent battle with pneumonia.

Arthur Hoyer, who was in an auto accident last week, wasn't badly hurt, but sported a beautiful black eye for a few days.

Members of the cast of "Double Door," a play to be presented Thursday and Friday nights at Crater High, appeared on the T.V. Val-Rogue show last Tuesday afternoon. Each member appeared as the person they will portray in the play. Andy Taylor gave a make-up demonstration, with Gail Skyrman as the model.

Mrs. Artmire of Prospect was a caller at the Everett Hogue home one day last week.

Douglas Grossman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Grossman, was able to return to school Tuesday after spending Saturday night in the hospital. Douglas was stung just above the upper lip by a honey bee. His face started swelling and he started breaking out with hives. The family didn't think it was too serious until he started to go into slight convulsions. They then rushed him to the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Weidman returned last week from Essex, Iowa where they had been called by the sudden death of Mr. Weidman's father. They made the trip by plane and on their way to Iowa had a time making connections. On their way home they stopped for a brief visit in Portland with Mrs. Weidman's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bresland, (Irene Williams) were home recently and spent two weeks with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Ayers were called to Arizona recently by the death of Mrs. Ayer's sister-in-law.

Crater High Couple Married In Rites at Community Church

Miss Sylvia June Blackwood and Robert A. King, both senior class students at Crater High school, were wedded March 14 at Community Bible church. The ceremony was performed at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. Rolf Hansen, and about 300 guests attended.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Blackwood, route 2, box 226, Central Point, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Cecil G. King, Central Point. Miss Nancy King, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Miss Annis Hobbs, Miss Norma Blackwood, a sister of the bride; Miss Sylvia Bishop, and Miss Patricia Stacy were bridesmaids.

Dennis Burns was best man and ushers were Lyle Yocum, Jerry Young, James Welch Jr., and Adrian VanHorn.

Mr. Blackwood gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown was ballerina length white net over satin with a lace jacket. Her veil was fingertip length and her headpiece was of teardrop pearls and orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet was pale pink carnations with a white orchid.

Miss King was dressed in a pastel yellow gown of organza with white flower design and her small hat was of the same material. Her bouquet was of pale pink carnations.

The bridesmaids wore matching pastel colored dresses. Miss Hobbs in pink; Miss Norma Blackwood, blue; Miss Bishop, orchid and Miss Stacy, green. Their bouquets were white daffodils arranged with material matching their gowns.

Helen and Derwin Blackwood lighted the candles.

White daffodils and white ribbons decorated the pew ends and the church was decorated with baskets of white snapdragons.

Larry Keene, accompanied by Miss Carol Rector, furnished the wedding songs. Mrs. Hansen played the wedding marches.

A reception was held at the church; Miss Jeannie Stelle attended the guest book while those who served were Miss Nancy King; Mrs. James Welch; Mrs. Floyd Stacy, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Eppinger, a cousin of the bridegroom.

The reception table was decorated with white candles, and pink carnations about the base of the wedding cake.

The couple made a wedding trip to Eugene, returning March 21 to make their home at Central Point. The bride and bridegroom are to graduate from high school in June.

Mrs. P. A. Tracy had as Sunday dinner guests, Mr. and Mrs. John Bohnert, Marilyn and Doreen. Marilyn returned Monday to classes at Oregon State.
