

Marsha Rae Doran Becomes Bride Saturday Of Dale Paul Schulz of Sams Valley

Miss Marsha Rae Doran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Doran of Table Rock, became the bride of Dale Paul Schulz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schulz of Sams Valley, in a wedding ceremony performed Saturday evening, May 8, at the First Methodist church in Medford.

Dr. Raymond Balcomb officiated as the double ring vows were repeated before 200 guests.

The church was beautifully decorated with hawthorne and snowballs with ferns and white bells.

White Ballerina Gown

The bride wore a white net ballerina-length gown trimmed in lace. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds centered with an orchid accented with white streamers.

Miss Lois Hawsley was maid of honor with Miss Harriet Morris and Linda Doran as bridesmaids. The bride's attendants appeared in yellow, pink and blue ballerina dresses with contrasting bouquets.

Cleon Botsford, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man. Larry Wilson and Kenneth Bigham served as ushers. Alice Wilson and Lucile Abbott, cousins of the groom, were candlelighters.

For the marriage of their children, both Mrs. Doran and Mrs. Schulz chose navy blue dresses and white accessories. They both wore white rose corsages.

Reception in Church

A wedding reception was held in the church fellowship rooms with Mrs. Joan Sharp, sister of the bride, serving the punch and Mrs. Louise Doran, sister-in-law, cutting the cake. Mrs. Marie Botsford, sister of the groom, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Donna Dunn and Miss Lucile Smith had charge of the gift table.

Home in Sams Valley

The young couple will make their home in the Sams Valley district on the new highway. Both are graduates of Crater high school. Mrs. Schulz was employed for two years as a secretary by Cheney Forest Products. The groom, who comes from a pioneer Sams Valley, is a veteran farmer.

Out of town guests who attended the marriage rites included Mr. and Mrs. George McClung and daughter from Redding, Calif. Mrs. McClung is an aunt of the bride.
