TO THE EDITOR:

Can Central Point citizens concur in the generally accepted opinion that her most distinguished living citizen is Major General Amos A. Friels, U. S. Army retired, 3305 Woodley Road N., Washington, D. C?

Early graduate of Central Point school, taught Willow Springs, then to West Point and hence on up.

If not, who is?

TO THE EDITOR:

Last Friday night I attended a musical program at the Central Point grade school—really didn't care much about going—, thinking it would be the usual toot-toot of poorly timed sour notes typical of most children's musical efforts, but felt that the presence of parents and citizens of the community would lend some encouragement to the pupils and their instructor in an effort that is often very tiring to both. Well! I got the most pleasant surprise I think I have ever experienced!

ARTHRITIS?

I have been wonderfully blessed in being restored to active life after being crippled in nearly every joint in my body and with muscular soreness from head to foot. I had Rheumatoid Arthritis and other forms of Rheumatism, hands deformed and my ankles were set.

Limited space prohibits telling you more here but if you will write me I will reply at once and tell you how I received this wonderful relief.

To those of you who were unfortunate enough to miss this program, let me say that it was really outstanding. I have been a musician for many years, have heard and played in many types of musical ensembles, some of which were classified as very good, and believe I have some right to pass judgement on the quality of a musical performance; and I can say without reservation that I have never heard a better performance by other than professional musicians, and very few by those.

Harry Myers and his pupils are to be congratulated—no, that is not the word for it, as it does not say enough to express the appreciation and credit due, and I'm sure that I was not, alone while I sat on the edge of my seat completely absorbed in enjoyment and pride during the excellent performance of these am sure of; it takes a well balanced combination of ability and effort on the part of both instructor and performer to execute those compositions with such harmony and precision, and the program Friday night proves that we are very fortunate indeed to have such a condition in our schools of Central Point.

Again, hats off! Ladies and gentlemen, to Harry Myers and the young musicians of Central Point schools!

REGAINING SIGHT

Mrs. Bertie Holt, who had major surgery on one of her eyes several weeks ago, is recuperating satisfactorily and is regaining her sight. She has been ill since the operation.

This and That

Now that hot summer days are here again jello salads of all varieties taste wonderful. Here's a nice cool one.

Frozen Salads

1 cup orange sections
1 cup crushed or chunk pineapple
1 cup mayonnaise

1 tablespoon gelatin
1 cup whip cream
½ cup chopped maraschino cherrios

¼ cup water.
Soften gelatin in cold water. Dissolve over hot water. Add mayonnaise. Mix thoroughly. Fold in cream. Fold in fruits. Pour into mold. Let stand in freezer for 4 hours. Unmold. Slice and serve on crisp lettuce. Serves six.

In a music shop window nothing is displayed but a single harp and this sign: "Drive carefully. This is our last Harp!"—and another sign set up by a junk dealer, near a railroad crossing: "Go ahead, take a chance; we'll buy the car." From a far away land, the South Africans have a safety slogan that reads like this—'n Kat Het Seve Levens, 'n Voetgagner Net Een. Which means: 'A cat has nine lives—a pedestrian only one.'

(Safe driver)

It's debated who runs through the most fads, boys or girls. Here's the latest style for the boys around the valley. Old (apparently the older the better) army or marine fatigue caps. Incidentally the stores carrying this latest style have been doing a rushing business.
