

Ernest Smith Earns Near Perfect Mark At Oregon Technical

Ernest B. Smith of Central Point posted a near perfect grade point average of 3.75 during the first year at Oregon Technical Institute, according to word from the school this week.

Smith, son of Fred B. Smith of Central Point, is studying electrical repair. He is a graduate of Central Point high school and a veteran of army service in Korea.

The school term at Oregon Tech ended June 11. Students at the institute are graded on the basis of their practical work, related technical studies, attitude and application. A grade point of 4.0 shows work far above minimum standards. It is the highest grade given at the institute.

Fishing Expedition

Dr. Robert Tolle and his good friend from southern California, Paul Wellman, spent three weeks fishing at Lake of the Woods in Canada, near Winnipeg. In addition to fine catches of bass, pike and pickerel, their trip was made more eventful when a hurricane hit while they were out on the lake.

They safely made port on an island where they spent the night and were able to proceed slowly to their own camp the following day. They returned this last week to Applegate. Wellman continued on to his

SIGN TIMBERLANDS BILL—Sen. Guy Cordon and Rep. Harris Ellsworth are pictured with President Eisenhower Thursday as he signed the bill, sponsored by the two Oregon legislators, placing 462,000 acres of controversial Oregon and California timberlands under the secretary of agriculture as national forest lands. The new bill provides for distribution of about $7,000,000 in timber sale receipts from Oregon and California railroad grant lands . . . 75 per cent to the counties, 25 per cent to the national government.
