

Douglas Robinson Weds Mary Heim In July Ceremony

By Mrs. Ray Doran
TABLE ROCK—Douglas Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Robinson, was married Saturday, July 17, to Mary Heim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ray of Medford. They will make their home after August 15 in Sursun, Calif. Douglas is manager of a paint store in Fairfield. A wedding breakfast was held at the Robinson home Sunday morning. John Morris and Don Richard and Carl Vanderpool spent Friday and Saturday camping at Fish Lake.

Made Corporal

Jimmy Halfhill, who is stationed at Harlingen Air Force Base in Texas, was recently made A2/c or a rank of corporal.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell South and children have moved to Grants Pass where he is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Levitt, Old Stage road, and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Bald of Pasadena, Calif., were visitors Thursday afternoon at the S. J. Richardson home. Mr. and Mrs. Bald have been doing some fishing in the Rogue Valley the past week. They had heard reports that the valley pears were a total loss and were surprised to find so many.

Week at Camp

James Vanderpool is spending the week with the group of young people from the Church of Christ of Central Point at their Christian Service Camp at Fir Point near Glendale.

Betty and Jerry Rood, Kinzua, Ore., spent a brief period Saturday visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Julia Myers.

Mrs. Mary Myers, 4-H leader of Table Rock, attended the pre-fair lamb show at Gold Hill Thursday. Three of her grandchildren were in it.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Myers and Mrs. Moore attended the funeral Monday of Mr. Beardon, who was killed by a log.

Margaret Ann Sharp spent several days with her grandparents at the Ray Doran home. Also visiting overnight Saturday was grand daughter, Tamara Doran.

With Army Reserves

Ernest Smith, returned Saturday from two weeks training with the army reserves. His picture was in the Sunday Mail Tribune.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers, Mrs. Julia Myers and Aletta spent Tuesday at Crater Lake, Diamond Lake and other points of interest.

Dr. Charles T. Sweeney of Carmel, Calif., visited the Elmer Hull and Frank Myers home Sunday evening. He is spending the summer in Ashland. Doctor Sweeney is a very well known retired doctor from the Rogue River valley.

TV Sets Damaged

Several TV sets were damaged in this district when a shot of electricity surged through the lines Wednesday night.

Miss Harriet Morris motored to Crescent City, Calif., Sunday with Ronald Brood, Larry Biggam and Gay Bartley of Central Point.

Mrs. Doris Nealon, Mrs. Mae Richardson, Mrs. Donna Dunn and Mrs. Jean Lewis attended a flower arrangement class at the home of Doctor Elliott Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Margaret Wilson and Helen Tonn were visitors at the Sunday School on Sunday.

REAL ESTATE

W. W. Ferguson, Broker
AUTO AND FIRE
INSURANCE
All Forms
239 Pine Phone 1242
Central Point

Bible study was held at the school house Tuesday night and refreshments were served afterward in honor of Mrs. Dickey's birthday.

Jim Kneeland of Medford was a recent fishing visitor in this district.

Visit Pierce Family

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth White of Mission San Joe, Calif., left Friday, July 23, after several days visit with the Bert Pierce family where their children have been for several weeks. Mrs. White and Mrs. Pierce are brother and sister.

Mrs. Donna Dunn and Mrs. Jean Lewis visited Mrs. Louise Doran in Medford Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Orville Hamilton took her Sunday school class to the Applegate on a picnic Thursday afternoon. The group attended the Presbyterian church in Central Point.

Candy Bishop and Penny Sage are attending swimming classes at the "Y".

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Matteson and children of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bishop and children had a picnic at Tou Velle park Sunday in honor of Mrs. Matteson's birthday.

Applegate Girl Tops Gold Hill Lamb Show

Gwen Krouse of Applegate was top individual judge at the 4-H Lamb show at the A. B. Beeman ranch at Gold Hill last week. Sixty-six 4-H members participated and 150 persons attended the show.

Ronnie Anderson was second and high junior judge, with Doreen Bohnert, Antelope, tied for second place.

Mildred Gail was the Gold Hill senior showman and grand champion. Mel Dailey, Bellview, was visiting senior showman and reserve champion. Terry Gail was the Gold Hill intermediate showman, David Carter was the Gold Hill junior showman, Roxie Sisemore, Bellview, visiting intermediate showman and Joan Drager, Bellview, visiting junior showman.

Leonard Kunzman, Crater high school vocational ag and FFA instructor, was judging official.

CALIFORNIA VISIT

Mrs. Don McFarland and daughter, Linda, of Bay City and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Collister and son of Hornbrooke, Calif., were guests at the home of Mrs. Nettie Fischer this week.

LEAVES FOR BOOT CAMP

Darrel Fischer left last Wednesday to begin his training period with the U. S. Navy. He will go through boot camp at San Diego, Calif. Darrel is the son of Mrs. Nettie Fischer.

PROMISES VISIT—President Eisenhower promises Oregon Senator Guy Cordon to visit the northwest September 23 to dedicate McNary Dam on the Columbia river. Senator Cordon, who delivered the address dedicating the McNary site ten years ago, has been a major force in securing money to keep construction of the dam on schedule. He extended his invitation to the President last week at the White House.

HERE FOR WEEKEND

E. P. Stone was in town over the weekend from Coos Bay where he has been working.

REPORTED ON MEND

Mrs. Tempie Hays, 333 Laurel street, is slowly improving from an attack suffered July 17.

WASHINGTON RELATIVES

Relatives who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Maple of North Fourth street are Mr. and Mrs. Otto Gilchrist and family from Everett, Wash., Mrs.

CHAPEL MORTUARY

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Across from Courthouse

Frank PHONE Harold
Morgan 2-8030 Snodgrass

MEDFORD, OREGON

LETTERMAN SWEATERS

MADE TO ORDER

School term is not too far away! Come in now and order your letterman sweater. Have it in time for school.

CUSTOM TAILORED
CHOICE OF STYLES
AND EMBLEMS

Headquarters for Dehens Letterman Sweaters

GLEASON

Sporting Goods Store

237 Pine
GOLD ARROW STAMPS
CENTRAL POINT

"Tick's" Daughter Wins Regatta Title

Newly crowned queen of the 33rd annual Astoria Regatta last weekend was Molly Malarkey, 19 year old daughter of L. J. Malarkey, Camp White, former editor of the Central Point American.

Miss Malarkey is well-known in the Astoria area as a singer and was winner of a radio contest there last year.

Miss Malarkey's father, known throughout the Rogue valley as "Tick," was employed for a brief time as editor of the American. He assisted Kenneth Powell, former publisher, in an editorial capacity.

4-Her's Reminded Of Pre-fair Aug. 9

All 4-H club members and friends are reminded of the Central Point Pre-fair to be held Monday, August 9, at the C. W. Anhorn home on Freeman road.

The 4-H pre-fair is in preparation for the annual Jackson County fair on August 18-21.

Judging for the local event will begin at 9:30 a.m. with showmanship contests in the afternoon. Lunch will be served at noon by 4-H mothers.

All visiting 4-H club members are welcome to participate. The first 100 club members will receive a candy bar from the Curtiss Candy Farms representative, Emmett Gott.

SAVE

HI-WEST FROZEN

PEAS-CORN-PEAS & CARROTS
Special 10c pkg.

TOMATOES

Red Ripe

10c lb.

LEMONS

Large Size

29c doz.

Swanson's

Margarine 5 lbs. 95¢

Bagley

CASE $5.79

Peaches 4 No. 2½ $1.00

DALE'S CASH MARKET

CHOICE U. S. Beef

Blade Cut Roast . . . lb. 37c

CHOICE U. S. Beef, Well Trimmed

Rib Steak . . . lb. 59c

PAULSEN'S

Thrift Market

Central Point's Most Complete
Food Store — Free Parking
We Reserve the Right to Limit Quantities