

Church Builders Schedule Dinner In SV Saturday

by Mrs. Floyd Doland

SAMS VALLEY—Sams Valley Christian Builders are having a dinner Saturday, October 23, at Sams Valley Grange hall to help raise money to build the valley's new church. The building fund is growing steadily and some day they will have a church to be proud of.

They hope that people will get hungry and will come to try their delicious dinner. Serving will be from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

New officers for the Sams Valley Christian Builders are: Mrs. Walter Miller, president; Mrs. Arnold Gosnell, vice president; Mrs. Floyd Polluck, secretary, and Mrs. Bob Galloway, treasurer.

New Paint Job

Sams Valley Grange hall has a new face. Mrs. Elwood Abbott, Mrs. Vic Brown and Mrs. Lindsey Houston did a wonderful job cleaning and painting inside the hall. The outside has a brand new coat of white paint also.

Sams Valley Grange will hold Booster Night on Tuesday, October 26, starting at 8 p.m. The program is open to the public. Sams Valley Juvenile Grange has several numbers for the program.

Attend Funeral

Gilbert Mack and son, David, attended grandmother's funeral at Forest Grove. She was Mrs. Martha Ellis, an Oregon pioneer born in 1869.

Sams Valley school children received booster shots and vaccinations Tuesday, October 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiyce Suregon and family moved on the Alvie Frederick place recently. Lavern is a third grader, Roger is in the eighth grade and John is a freshman at Crater High school.
