

Orvella Conklin Weds U.S. Marine

Orvella Emilpann Conklin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Conklin, 2875 Lone Pine road, Medford, became the bride of Wheldon Glass, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Glass of 425 Earhart, Medford, in an evening ceremony Monday, January 3, at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

The Conklin family were former Central Point residents, making their home at First and Laurel. The bride attended Central Point grade school and Crater High school. The groom attended Medford schools and Crater High school last year.

The Rev. E. J. Gilstrap of the Central Church of Christ, Medford, performed the nuptial ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a pale orchid colored, ballerina-length gown of brocaded satin. She wore a white orchid corsage. Matron of honor was Mrs. Roland G. Glass, sister-in-law of the groom. Roland Glass, brother of the groom, attended his brother as best man.

For the wedding and reception, the Glass family home was decorated with orchids and white chrysanthemums.

Miss Ernestine Conklin, sister of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Darrell Friess, a cousin of the bride, served the punch.

The table was decorated with a miniature bride and groom and tall tapers of green and white.

The newlyweds will make their home at 1117 South Fremont, Oceanside, Calif., while the groom is stationed at Camp Pendleton with the U. S. Marines.
