

Club Completes Plans for Annual Flower Show Scheduled April 19

Final plans for the annual flower show of the Central Point Garden club were made at a meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Holmes.

The show, "The Old Stage Road," to be held on Tuesday, April 19, at the Legion Memorial Hall, will honor Miss Claire Hanley, president of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, and will carry out the club theme of the year, "Wild Flowers."

Special features at the show will be the two classes of arrangements, "Grandma's Bouquets," and "Grandma's Flower's Gone Modern." Small and miniature arrangements will be displayed and large horticultural display is planned.

Mrs. Gaston Floux and Mrs. J. E. Vincent co-chairman, led the discussion and made a revised announcement of committees.

These committees are: Mrs. J. Cornutt, Mrs. Paul Anderson and Mrs. Leonard Freeman, grandma's bouquets; Mrs. John Holmes, Mrs. Ralph Hixon, Mrs. Wallace West and Mrs. R. D. Kay, grandma's flowers gone modern; Mrs. John Wisely, Mrs. Edward Jones and Mrs. W. I. Sutherland, bits o' beauty; Mrs. W. B. Kincaid, Mrs. Milo Lamb and Mrs. Lloyd Seymour, specimens; Mrs. Scott Hamilton, Mrs. Warren Patterson, Mrs. Everett Young, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Smith, Mrs. E. E. Reams, Mrs. Ray Stanley and Mrs. O. T. Wilson, wild flowers and conservation; Mr. and Mrs. (Swing), Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jantzer and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gooden, assisted by Warren Holbrook and art class of Crater High school, the Old Stage Road.

Mrs. Vincent, Mrs. Everett A. Faber and Mrs. Don E. Faber, tea table and small tables; Mrs. Francis Russell, punch table; Mrs. C. W. Anhorn, schedule and publicity; Mrs. Don Patterson, Mrs. Hamilton and Mrs. Glen Downing, of Crater club, program; Mrs. Everett A. Faber, invitation and mimeographing; Mrs. John Johns, Mrs. H. E. Conger and Mrs. A. T. Lathrop, hospitality; Mrs. B. M. Smith and Mrs. Arlet Anderson, poster; Mrs. A. Anderson and Mrs. Avis Weisel, kitchen; Mrs. Don Patterson and Mrs. Steve Benston, pressed flower collections; and Mrs. Anhorn, Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. Hixson, shadow boxes.

Commission Sees Sub-division Plat

A plat of a sub-division off Crater Lake highway was presented by Bud Hoover to members of the planning commission at their meeting last Thursday evening at the city hall.

The commission made several suggestions to Hoover on the plat. Following a survey, the commission will act on the final plat.

Those present were Bill Askwith, president, Lee Dysinger, secretary, W. B. Kincaid, J. R. Krupp, Oliver Obenchain and Joe Edwards.

The commission will meet again Monday, April 11.

GREAT GRANDDAUGHTER

In last week's paper telling of the newly born daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Wilson of Eagle Point and stating that the O. T. Wilsons were grandparents, we were incorrect. This little lady is their first great granddaughter. Our apologies.

CHAPEL MORTUARY

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Across from Courthouse

Frank Morgan PHONE 2-8030 Harold Snodgrass

MEDFORD, OREGON

Funeral Held Tues For T. McWethy,

Funeral rites for Theodore McWethy, 71, of Pittview avenue, Central Point, were conducted Tuesday afternoon from the Conger-Morris chapel in Medford.

Mr. McWethy passed away Friday, April 1, just six weeks after his wife, Flora, succumbed. Mrs. McWethy died February 18.

James W. Mather of Jehovah Witnesses officiated at the service. Interment was in Memory Gardens.

Mr. McWethy was born September 10, 1883, near Franklin, Kentucky. He was married to the late Flora K. Ellis on December 12, 1909, at Coldgate, Oklahoma.

A retired carpenter, he moved to Central Point about ten years ago from Texas.

Survivors include: three daughters, Mrs. James Clark, Central Point; Mrs. Iva Watson, Amarillo, Texas; Mrs. Jay Saquety, Whittier, Calif.; three brother, Charles and Walter, California, and William, Oklahoma; one sister, Mrs. Sylvia Roberts, Oklahoma; 12 grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Vet Variety Show Scheduled Friday

The April program of the Veterans Hour Variety Show and Radio Quiz, sponsored by District 13, American Legion and Radio Station KYJC under the direction of Myers-Holland Post 129, Central Point, will be presented at the Veterans Administration Domiciliary theatre, Friday evening, April 8, 7:45 p.m.

The program, under the supervision of "Mac" McLaughlin of Ashland Post 14, will feature an all-star cast of the musical and drama classes of the Southern Oregon College, directed by Miss Pech, drama coach.

The Radio Quiz, with Franklin "Jerry" Girard, director of recreation as quiz master will ask the questions and get the right answers from five members of the Domiciliary competing for valuable prizes donated by the merchants of Ashland.

The Ladies Auxiliary Unit 14, of Ashland, will serve refreshments of doughnuts and coffee after the program.

The public is invited to attend the program and visit with the disabled veterans stationed at the Domiciliary.

Bill Ryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ryan of Table Rock, last week purchased $750 of livestock for his supervised FFA livestock project.

J'ville Orders Dogs Tied Up

By Mrs. Carl Hoskins
JACKSONVILLE—Dogs owned by residents in the city limits of Jacksonville are to be tied up beginning April 1. This is according to city Ordinance No. 69. B. J. Christianson, city recorder announced this week.

Clayton Greenmeyer, a Jacksonville high school graduate, has recently received his release from the Navy after serving for four years on the USS Hornet.

Alan McBeth, a Navy electrician, arrived last week from Adak, Alaska, to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. McBeth. He planned to be here about two weeks and from here will go to Portland where he expects to be stationed for about two months before returning to Adak.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Beck, Old Stage road, have purchased the former Bill Winningham ranch on Forest Creek just out of Jacksonville and plan to move there next week. The place consists of about 80 acres and the Becks plan to run white face cattle on the ranch.

Miss Judy Morning wrote a winning essay for the Annual Good Citizenship Essay contest this week for the Crater Lake Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mr. Mike Buneli recently here from Chicago, plans to make his home with his niece, Mrs. Sofia Sokolowski and family on south Oregon Street, Jacksonville.

Miss Lindora Markwith was home last week end for a visit with her parents. She attends OTI at Klamath Falls.

Louis Adams, son of Mr. and

Mrs. Alva Adams, is home on a visit. He has just returned here from Korea. He is with the Marine.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Serry plan to leave this Friday to spend a week with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Keener of El Monte, Calif. The Serry's are anxious to see their new grandson born in November.

Members of the Jacksonville Garden club held their annual plant sale in Medford on Friday, April 1 in the Fehl building. It was a very successful venture and many other articles such as rummage, Bazaar and white elephant items were sold as well as plants.

Mrs. Myrtle P. Lee, curator at Jacksonville museum, is ill this week and in the hospital. This is her second recent illness.

Ruth Rebekah Lodge No. 4, Jacksonville, held their regular meeting Monday evening. Eleven members were present. After the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Letha Black and Mrs. Louis Jones. Table decorations were in the Easter motif and spring blossoms.

A new baby, born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter John April 2, a boy, Box 259 Jacksonville.

A medical patient at the Osteopathic hospital this week is Mrs. Kermit Combes, Jacksonville.

Mrs. Margaret Love, Former Land Owner, Succumbs Thursday

Funeral services for Mrs. Margaret Leona Love, 87, were held Saturday morning in Chapel Mortuary with the Rev. D. Kirkland West of the First Presbyterian church of Medford officiating.

The body was sent to Iowa for interment today.

Mrs. Love, who passed away Thursday, March 31, was born in Iowa on July 12, 1867. She was married on September 27, 1894 to James Guthrie Love, who succumbed last year.

The family came to the Rogue valley over 35 years ago. They owned and operated the Snowy Butte orchard at Central Point until Mr. Love's retirement about ten years ago.

One son, Granville, of Crawfordville, Iowa, survives.

TIRE SALE - This Week Only 20% to 33 1/3% OFF!

WHEN IN TOWN-COME AROUND

PANTER'S RICHFIELD OFFICIAL AAA SERVICE
ONE STOP AUTO SERVICE CENTER
MAPLE & 99 NORTH CENTRAL POINT

a Beaver...

builds his home of sticks...

But people in Jackson County find it much more convenient to build homes with HOME LOANS from their home-owned, home-operated

Savings and Loan Association

Whether you're planning to BUY or BUILD a home, or REMODEL or REPAIR the home you have now... Come in and talk to us about financing... Talking to us puts you under no obligation whatsoever.

Jackson County Federal
SAVINGS & LOAN ASSOCIATION
Where You Are Paid to Save
126 East Main Street
Medford
Since 1909

TANK GAS SERVICE
Cooking - Water Heating - Refrigeration - Heating
propane tanks for rent—No need to buy.
UTILITY SERVICE
TELEPHONE 2-5284
228 West Main - Medford

this ANNOUNCEMENT is for you...

YES! You and all the world are hereby invited to come and hear the out-standing and special Bible discourse:

CHRISTENDOM or CHRISTIANITY

--which one is

"the Light of the World?"

Public Address By

R. C. GROSHONG

SUNDAY, APRIL 10

3 P. M.

Kingdom Hall

of Jehovah's Witnesses

First and Alder

Central Point