John Cupp's Drastic STORE-WIDE FIRE SALE! STARTING SATURDAY DOORS OPEN AT 9 A.M. JUNE 25

Notice---Store will be closed Thursday and Friday STATEMENT BY OWNERS

After our near disastrous fire of June 21, but for the fine work of the Central Point Fire Department, our store would have been completely destroyed.

We find that our entire stock of fine furniture, carpets and mattresses have a greater degree of damage by water and smoke than we first thought. So, in keeping with our policy of 30 years to always bring you fine, first quality home furnishings, we have decided to offer the entire $60,000 stock at greatly reduced prices and will restock with entirely new merchandise.

Most of the damaged stock is basically as good as ever except for water stain, smoke smell, mars and dust caused by the fire.

This sale will be a bona fide fire damage sale. Every article will have the regular, original price tag and with the sale tag attached. We will reduce the regular price according to damage and condition, some as much as 50 percent discount.

NOTHING RESERVED . . . EVERYTHING IN THE STORE OFFERED AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES. Every article will be sold as it with no returns. We will show you the actual damage . . . you be the judge of the reduced price.

Signed—John Cupp

W. F. "Bill" Saxbury

P. S. The sale will continue until the entire present stock is sold.
