

Johnson-Starks Exchange Vows At Local Church

Miss Frances Marie Starks became the bride of Martin Paul Johnson in a 7 p.m. ceremony Saturday, June 11, at the Community Bible church in Central Point.

The Rev. Rolf H. Hansen performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry F. Starks, 68 Freeman road. She graduated from Crater High school in 1954 and is now employed as a stenographer by J. F. Fliegel, Medford attorney. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil B. Johnson, Gold Hill. He graduated from Gold Hill High school in 1951 and then spent four years in the navy. He is now employed by the Medford Corporation.

For her marriage, the bride selected a floor length, full gathered skirt of white tulle over white satin with long sleeved lace bodice. The bodice had tiny pearl buttons down the front and on the sleeves. Three rows of ruffles and a number of small white velvet bows were scattered on the skirt along with four blue velvet bows for a touch of color. At her throat the bride wore a small old fashioned pearl fan pin which she borrowed from her mother. A crown of small white net leaves and pearls adorned her head, from which flowed a full-length veil.

Her bouquet was an orchid with a tiny white stephanotis and ribbon.

Nancy Runyan, Vista, Calif., a Crater High graduate of 1954, served as maid of honor. She wore a yellow taffeta with white lace and net over skirt of ballerina length. She carried a bouquet of blue Esther Reed daisies and white stephanotis.

Bridesmaids were Linda Obenchain, 1954 Crater graduate, who wore a ballerina length gown of blue net over taffeta with a white lace jacket set off with tiny wreath of white flowers in her hair. She carried a nosegay of pink Esther Reed daisies.

Doreen Bohnert, also a Crater High graduate of 1954, wore a green net over taffeta ballerina length dress. She also wore a white lace jacket and a wreath of tiny white flowers in her hair and carried a nosegay of yellow Esther Reed daisies. Janet Willard of Medford was the third bridal attendant. She wore an orchid net over taffeta ballerina length dress. She carried a nosegay of green Esther Reed daisies.

Carolyn Starks, cousin of the bride from Ukiah, Calif., was flower girl. She wore an orchid colored dress with white daisies on it and a band of blue ribbon with a blue bow. She carried a small basket decorated with white ribbon and lacelawn.

Candlelighters were Le Ann Simonson, Smith River, Calif., and Charles Johnson, brother of the groom.

For her daughter's marriage, Mrs. Starks chose a white nylon, floor length formal over satin with two-tone red and yellow roses painted on it. She wore elbow length mits to match. Her accessories were white and she wore a corsage of yellow rose buds, presented to her by the groom.

The groom's mother wore an orchid floor length formal of lace and net over taffeta with lace mits to match and white accessories. She also wore a yellow rose bud corsage given her by her son.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Best man was Lelan Starks of Central Point, brother of the bride. Ushers were Charles Gilchrist, Medford; Stanley Newnam, Medford, and Gene Holderness, Gold Hill.

Mrs. Loree Ford sang "If I Could Tell You," and "If God Left Only You," accompanied by Mrs. Rolf Hansen on the piano.

A reception was held in the church following the ceremony. The bride and groom cut the three-tiered wedding cake which consisted of five heart-shaped cakes around a round cake in the center. Punch was served.

Donations in the church were baskets of roses, snapdragons, lily, delphinium and fern. White bows were at each pew. Roses covered the fence at the altar. Bouquets of different flowers were used in the reception room. Miss Alice Turner decorated for the wedding.

Mrs. Don Turner was in charge of the gift table. Miss Alice Turner was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Ann Brereton served the cake and Mrs. Margarette Willarding poured the punch which was prepared by Art Brereton and Ervin Willarding.
