New Operators Take Over Gold Hill Cafe

by Adah Jones

GOLD HILL—The El Rogue Cafe has recently changed operators. Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Myers, who have been in charge, have found it necessary to return to their home in Montana because of the serious illness of their son.

The cafe was owned by Mr. and Mrs. Alva Walker but has been purchased by their grandson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Walker. Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Walker have been living at Tiller, Oregon where he is working for a logging company. He expects to continue his job there through this season. They will live in the apartment behind the cafe. Mrs. Josephine Fields will assist with the cooking.
