

CD Outline Heard By Grangers Friday, 4-H's Entertain

An outline of civil defense disaster plans as they relate to the Central Point area was discussed at a general meeting preceding the Central Point Grange meeting last Friday evening, July 1.

Those present for this meeting were Maj. Gen. J. H. Hicks, Jackson county civil defense director; Mrs. O. A. Edon, assistant Red Cross disaster chairman; Seth Bullis, Red Cross disaster chairman; Col. Herman Meiring, food chairman for the county.

It was announced that the annual grange picnic will be held on Sunday, August 14, at Tou Velle park. More details will be announced later.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by the General 4-H club, with Lee Gossett, president, presiding.

Flag salutes led by Bobby Kuest opened the program followed by songs led by Phyllis Taylor and reading of the 4-H Creed by Alice Thompson. These 4-H'ers are members of Chuck's Poultry club.

A skit by members of the Kandy Kids with Sharon Coffman serving as reader followed. Appearing in the Kandy Kids skit were Patsy Charley, Mildred Darras, Marlena Coffman, Mary Savage, Carolee Kuest, Patti Barber, Cheryl Ghelardi and Margaret Taylor. Mike Charley and Judy Frink assisted.

A skit, "Preparation for the Fair", was given by the Central Point Pig Club with Rose Marie Legler narrating and Willie Debrick, Jim Frink and Russell Frink acting the part of pigs.

A reading by John Caster of the Central Point Dairy club and a song closed the program. Mrs. C. W. Anhorn was in charge of the program for the evening.

4 County 4-H'ers Elected Officers At Summer School

Four Jackson county 4-H clubbers were elected officers of their living organizations at the 40th annual summer school on the Oregon State college campus, June 14 to 24.

Students serving in officer were Sheila Couey, social chairman; Carolyn Tiegs, sports chairman; Marjo Murray, etiquette chairman; Julie Joy, song leader.

Fred Jossy and John Foley appeared in the annual talent show and Carolyn Tiegs was in the 4-H club radio revue. Carolyn Tiegs was also a commentator in the 4-H style show.

Over 1850 youngsters from all over the state attended summer school this year.

AT LAKE CABIN

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Faber, their children and their families and several guests spent the Fourth of July holiday at the Faber cabin at Lake of the Woods. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stratton, Mr. and Mrs. Don A. Faber and children, all of Central Point, David and Carol Ann Smullin of Medford and Jack Mitchell Jr. of Chico, Calif.

1955 SEAFAIR PIRATE CHIEFS

SEATTLE'S 1955 Seafair pirate leaders, Davy Jones (left) to be portrayed by King County Undersheriff Don Sprinkle and Captain Kidd, in real life magazine publisher Charles R. Dennison, glowered fiercely as they rehearsed for their roles as villains of Seattle's annual summertime maritime mardi gras. But pretty model Jackie McDonald seemed oblivious to her "dangerous company". The pirates' invasion of Seattle on Friday, July 29, will set the stage for the 1955 Seafair which will run through Sunday, August 7. Highlights this year are the big downtown parades, July 30 and August 5, the "Aqua Follies" show at the Aqua Theatre July 28—August 10 and the Gold Cup Race on August 7.
