Willow Springs Community Picnic Slated July 10

By Mrs. Everett Young

WILLOW SPRINGS—Remember Willow Springs Community picnic will be Sunday, July 10, at Jackson Hot Springs. Come bring a picnic lunch and enjoy the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Petty Eoff of Des Moines, Iowa, were visitors of Marion Young recently.

Mr. and Mrs. John Morgan of Portland were visiting here over the holidays. They were former Willow Springs residents. Their three boys are spending the summer here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John Adams of Prineville stopped by the Crater Rock Museum to visit the Delmar Smiths Sunday.

Rita Calloway and Don McCullah were married Friday in Grants Pass and will make their home in the Griffin Creek District. Mrs. McCullah is the former Rita Weiss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Weiss. Best wishes for a long and happy married life go to them from all their friends in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy West and five of their seven children from California called on Mr. and Mrs. Dixon Saltgaver Sunday. Mrs. West is the former Virginia Wright and she lived here as a girl. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Wright, live in Talent.

Mrs. Anna Mallory of Elk Creek spent several days last week with her sister, Mrs. Frank Hammond.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewell Phillips and children spent the holidays at Crescent City, Calif.

Pvt. Fred Armstrong Receives Discharge

Fred Armstrong, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Armstrong of Central Point, has arrived home after receiving his discharge from the army June 27 at Madigan Army hospital.

Private Armstrong returned to this country May 3 after serving for 21 months in Schreinfert, Germany, with the 16th infantry regiment, heavy mortar.

Armstrong, who enlisted in the army in March, 1953, is a 1950 graduate of Longmont, Colo., high school and attended San Jose Bible college for two years.

Route Carrier Feted At Farewell Party

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ellis, route 1 mail carrier out of the Central Point postoffice, were guests of honor at a farewell party in the Conger home last week.

Guests were the postoffice crew. The Ellis family will move to Nebraska to make their home.

Premium Lists For Oregon State Fair Placed in Mail

SALEM, June 28—More than 2,000 premium lists for the 1955 Oregon state fair have just been mailed from the fairgrounds here to former fair exhibitors and others. Fair dates are Saturday September 3 through Saturday September 10.

Art work on the cover of the booklet illustrates the gay nine-ties theme of this year's fair. Exhibit, judging and competition regulations and other necessary information for exhibitors is given on dairy cattle, dual purpose, beef, draft horses, sheep and goats, swine, poultry, rabbits, honey bees, land products, floral, art, foods, and textile departments.

Requests for premium booklets should be mailed to the Oregon State Fair, Salem, and should state the department in which the person making the request is interested so that the correct entry blank can be sent with the booklet.

Upper Rogue 4-H Fair Scheduled Saturday

The Upper Rogue 4-H club will have its practice 4-H fair at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Houston at 1 p.m. on Saturday, July 9, at Shady Cove.

The entire club will take part in this fair, both livestock and home economics.

The local Rotary club sponsors the Upper Rogue 4-H club. The public is invited to see what youth can and is doing.
