

Canadians Visit Brother, Enjoy Valley Sunshine

By Adah Jones

GOLD HILL—Mr. and Mrs. James Molloy and children, Michael, Cameron and Maurine are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Molloy at the Oaks Motel. The men are brothers and it is the first trip here for the James Molloy family, who live at Pioneer Mine, British Columbia. A gold mining town where mountains keep the sunshine in short hours. They are enjoying the Rogue valley sunshine and taking advantages of opportunities for dental work which is difficult to get in their mining town.

Mr. and Chaucy Page and Mrs. Page's nephew, Utah Switzer of Eureka, recently made a trip to Yakima, Wash. to visit relatives of Mrs. Page and to try out the new car the Pages recently purchased. They went by way of Diamond Lake and Bend on high way 97 north seeing much of the state that was new to them.

Mrs. Ethel Mays and son Buddy returned to their home on 6th Ave. after spending the past month visiting her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mays and their baby son, Jerry Steven, at Albuquerque, New Mexico. They returned by way of Grand Junction, Colo., where they stopped to visit other relatives.

District Deputy Grand Master Harry Smith and his staff of the Gold Hill IOOF lodge have been kept busy the past week with installation ceremonies in the valley. Last Friday night was installation at Jacksonville; Monday night at Central Point and Tuesday night at Medford. On the staff besides Harry Smith are "Bud" Harry Force, Deputy Master; Paul Thompson, secretary; Norman Gail, treasurer; Ferd Jones, chaplain; Glenn Miller and Don Morrow, guardians and Leonard Andrews, warden.

Allen Martin, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Martin, is spending the summer with his grandparents and with his father Jim Martin. Allen's home is in Seattle.

The firemen and fire truck got a little work out Sunday evening when they were called to put out a grass fire just east of the Community church. Grass burned from a lot belonging to Vaughn Whitmore, early in the day, flared up in the late afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith have returned from a few days vacation. George Patsy took care of the meat market at Gall's Gold Hill Market during Harry's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shoemaker of Chicago, Ill., returned Monday to their home after spending several weeks visiting friends and relatives in the Gold Hill area. Edward is the son of Mrs. Helen Shoemaker of Gold Hill and Ed Shoemaker. He is employed at the Chicago post-office.

Mrs. Iva Lentz of Sacramento, Calif. and her sister, Mrs. Pearl Harter of southern California, are spending a few days in Gold Hill. Mrs. Dentz is looking after rental property, also visiting her granddaughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Walker.

John Cameron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Cameron, writes his folks that he expects to be on his way to Africa by air on July 28. John is a naval airman and is at Putuxent, Md., on the carrier Coral Sea.

Mrs. Amy Ross left last week for San Diego where she is visiting her son Pat, who is on the destroyer Radar Sutherland at San Diego. Pat expects to be sent out to other waters in the near future.

Mrs. F. P. Mitchel has returned to live in her home on 6th ave. after spending several months with relatives at Jacksonville, since the death of Mr. Mitchel in March.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kofahl, of north Pacific highway, entertained for a few days last week, their son Col. Harold Kofahl and Lieut. Col. Geor. Herndon, of the U. S. air force. Col. Kofahl is chief of personnel, procurement division and Lieut. Col. Herndon is an executive officer. Both men have offices in the Pentagon in Washington, D. C. and are on a routine tour.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Carter and children, Ruth Ann and Jimmie, are at the home of LeRoy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carter on the upper river road. They are on a ten day vacation from Lima, Ohio, where LeRoy is employed as an aviation design engineer for Westinghouse. One June 15 he received his Master's degree in science at the University of Pittsburg, having taken his course under the Westinghouse and University of Pittsburg's extension plan of night classes. He has his bachelor's degree in science from Iowa State college while in the navy, and is a graduate of Gold Hill high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott, of Sumpter, Oregon, have been spending a few days at their home on the North frontage road across the Rogue from Gold Hill. The Scotts have mining interests in Eastern Oregon, near Sumpter.

Mr. and Mrs. Hummel have moved to the Fred Hasse place on the north frontage road. Mr. and Mrs. Hummel are owners of the Red Shutters, formerly a cafe, on the Pacific highway north.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wentworth have moved to the Red Shutters after selling their property on north frontage road.

Norman Mortesen of Klamath, Calif., stopped enroute from Lapine, to visit his former friends and neighbors, Mr. and Mrs.

Frank Lockwood on the north frontage road.

Mrs. Florence Livingston and Mrs. Marjorie Arias made a trip to Redmond last Friday on business.

Among the Gold Hill people, who went over to Brookings Sunday to attend the Lily Festival were Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wright and granddaughter Sharon Wright, Lester Dusenberry and Mrs. Nina Dusenberry. Another car load was Mr. and Mrs. Delos Walker, Linda Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Van Offin and son Phillip and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Smith and son Delmer.

Larry Kell, son of Howard Kell, left Sunday after spending a few days leave after finishing boot camp at San Diego. From here Larry went to Portland to visit his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gray and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gray. From there he will attend a special training school in the east.

Local 4-H's Thank Friends for Help

To our parents and friends:

We wish to thank all of you for helping us to have our fine Central Point 4-H fair last Saturday. So many of you came to watch and encourage us.

We wish to thank publicly Leonard Kunzman for his help in judging and instructing us.
