FOR LITTER BUGS—Handy, green-painted litter bag barrels are fast becoming a familiar sight along Oregon's highway system. Signs reading, "Deposit Litter Bags—1/4 Mile" (shown in insert), are placed on each side of the barrel locations for convenience in slowing down and using them for disposition of papers and garbage. The barrel shown here is being used at a location just back of Detroit Dam on Oregon Highway 22, east of Salem. (Oregon State Highway Department Photo).

Wash. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Richard Muller and family and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Lewis and family of Medford went on a picnic and outing to Wagner Gap.

Mrs. Anna Wolff and Robert motored to Roseburg last week by way of Tiller. They were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wolff and family. Curtis Boardman of Grants Pass is helping Robert haying this week. Curtis is the grandson of Mrs. Anna Wolff.

Charley Hallett went on a deep sea fishing trip out from Crescent City last week and Mrs. Hallett went to Los Molinos, Calif., to spend a few days with her son, Don Frazer.

Weekend guests of the Halletts were Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Blake of Klamath Falls.

LETTERS from WASHINGTON
Congress to Adjourn August 6—Ellsworth

By Rep. Harris Ellsworth
The idea that this session of Congress will adjourn July 30th seems to have been abandoned. Big and controversial bills scheduled for House action include the highway bill, some sort of housing bill, the upper Colorado reclamation authorization and possibly the hotly disputed bill to amend the National Gas Act to take production and gathering of natural gas out from under Federal regulation. Best guess now is August 6th.
