TO SHOW AT FAIR—Dale Smith, 16 year old Central Point boy, will be one of the many exhibitors at the Jackson County 4-H and FFA fair which starts next Tuesday. Dale, in his seventh year of 4-H club work, will be showing four imported Galloway heifers, two Herefords and a Hereford bull in this year's fair. At the Central Point pre-fair last month he won the livestock contest. He is the son of Mrs. Irene Jennings and lives with his mother at the ranch of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Charley.

Douthit to Attend Council Workshop On Eugene Campus

Nathan Douthit, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Douthit of Route 1, Central Point, will attend a student council workshop to be held in the Erb Memorial Union building on the campus of the University of Oregon, August 14-19, in Eugene.

Douthit, who will be a senior at Crater High school, is president-elect of the student council.

The workshop, first of its kind to be held in Oregon, will be conducted by the Oregon Association of Student Councils with the assistance of the school of Education, University of Oregon, the Oregon Association of Secondary School Principals and the State Department of Education.

Aim of the workshop is to provide experience and develop techniques in group leadership for student council leaders and their sponsors, to promote the understanding of the aims and objectives of the student council and to develop uniform practices in student council work in Oregon.

One hundred and twenty-five Oregon high schools, and approximately 50 high school principals and faculty council advisers, will be represented.

TWO SISTERS VISIT

Miss Louise Johnson and Mrs. Annie Sandness, both of Minneapolis, Minnesota, were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, Central Point. The two women, who were vacationing, are sisters of Johnson. While in Oregon, they visited Johnson's daughter, Harriet, in medical school at Portland.
