TD Deer Hunters Report Little Luck on Weekend

By Mrs. Ray Doran
TABLE ROCK—Robert Sage hunted at Bly the past weekend, and, although seeing several bucks, was unable to bag one. Mr. and Mrs. John Morris and son, Richard, hunted in eastern Oregon. They were with a party of six which brought out one deer. They left Friday and returned Monday.

Tamara and Shane Doran spent several days with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Doran. Mr. and Mrs. Perry Cooper, Dunsmuir, Calif., spent several days with her father, E. C. Hamilton, on Pumice Lane.

Herschel Harper had two ribs broken while doctoring a cow on Redskin last Friday. He was pinned against the feed bins.

Mrs. Ann Sage is now working at Lawrence Jewelry in Medford. Little David Sage stays with his aunt, Mrs. Bishop.

Some changes noted in mode of travel in Table Rock are: 1952 Ford for Ray Wyatt. 1955 Chevrolet for Orville Shores; new Cushman scooter with all the accessories for James Vanderpool, with his brother, Carl, now owning the little red Cushman.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers and mother, Mrs. Julia Myers, left Monday for Bend where they stayed for two days visiting the Patterson Rock Gardens. They then went on to Sisters and over the McKenzie pass to Roseburg to visit friends. They arrived back home Friday evening.

Bill Bigham, Antelope, was a dinner guest at the Myers home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Vanderpool and son, Billy, Route 1, Central Point, left Monday morning for a two weeks visit in Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Vanderpool and sons, James and Carl, were Sunday dinner guests at the Lloyd Vanderpool home in Central Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Myers and five children, Gold Hill, are moving to Central Point this week. Four of the children will be in the grade school with the oldest, Carol, in the eighth grade. Myers is associated with the feed store at Four-Corners.

Church Ships Fruit to Homes

Tuesday of this week, 346 quarts of fruit were sent by the Central Point Church of Christ to two benevolent homes in the northern part of the state.

This has been an annual project of the Ladies Mission Circle for many years, but the whole church had a share in the work this year, under their leadership. Practically every family in the church contributed a few jars.

A group gathered at the parsonage on Tuesday to pack the total which was shipped by Pierce Freight Lines to Turner Memorial Home at Turner and to the Northwestern Christian Home at Beaverton.

The Turner home is maintained by the church, mainly for retired ministers, and the latter is a benevolent home for all elderly people.

Gold Hill Pastor Passes Suddenly

By Adah Jones

GOLD HILL—The community was saddened by the sudden passing of Rev. Geo. Hatch on Wednesday, Sept. 28 at his home in Medford. Rev. Hatch and wife had come to Gold Hill in June where Mr. Hatch has been serving as pastor in the Community Methodist church. They had come from Portland and liked Southern Oregon so much they had just purchased a home in Medford and had moved their furnishings from their Portland home. Mr. Hatch was born in Clayton, Ill. on Aug. 11, 1880 and had spent several years in the newspaper business before entering the ministry. He had served with Mrs. Hatch as missionary in the southern part of the United States and for some time in evangelistic work. Services were held on Monday at Conger Morris chapel with Rev. Merideth Groves officiating. Interment at Siskiyou Memorial park.

Commission for Beef May Boost Prices

A beef commission may be the answer to sagging cattle prices, reports Charles Stanley, Eagle Point stockman.

Stanley attended the Oregon Cattlemen's association executive committee meeting last week in Prineville where representatives of Oregon's cattle producers continued their study of marketing problems. He said a committee was appointed to iron out technicalities of Oregon's commodity enabling act which make it difficult to form a livestock commission.

Stanley is OCA executive committee member from Jackson county.
