By Adah Jones
GOLD HILL—Many of the hunters around Gold Hill have been more successful in their efforts the past few days. Under the heading of "never underestimate" is Mrs. Fred Taylor. While he was gone Mrs. Taylor hunted nearer home and bagged a nice fat 4-point buck, which she has cut up and wrapped for the locker by time her husband got home without his deer. Mrs. Taylor is around 70 years old.

Another hunter is James Eldred, 13 years old, who went with his parents to eastern Oregon and was the only one in the group to get a buck.
