

RATES: Three cents per word, minimum of fifty cents. Classified ads accepted until 6 p.m. on Wednesday. Just call NO 4-1323 or mail your ad to Central Point American, P. O. Box 247.

For Sale

FOR SALE — Utility grade lumber. Heavy 2x4 and 2x6. Units average 3200 feet. $15 per unit. Triple Milling, Inc., Central Point. 3-2

NO HUNTING - NO TRESPASSING SIGNS. Now available at American office. Any quantity.

RUBBER STAMPS, DATERS, SEALS made to your order. Fast service. Central Point American, phone NO 4-1323.

FOR SALE—Typewriter paper, mimeograph paper, second sheets. Several grades to choose from. Any quantity. Central Point American. x

Business Services

CENTRAL POINT BEAUTY SHOP closed Mondays. Late appointments Tuesday. 335 Pine, Telephone NO 4-1013, Central Point. tf

For Rent

FOR RENT—Apartment, two rooms and shower. Willow Trees Court, 24 Ash street, Central Point. 3-1*

Lindvall Takes Part In Marine Exercise

Camp Pendleton, Calif. (Special to American)—Marine Cpl. Lloyd R. Lindvall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Lindvall, Route 2, Central Point, participated with the 1st Western Marine Air-Ground Brigade in an amphibious training exercise conducted here by the 1st Marine Division September 19-23.

The brigade is a special command consisting of the division's 1st Regiment, supporting ground elements, and aviation units based at El Toro, Calif.

After five days of training at sea, the Leathernecks made a pre-dawn amphibious landing north of nearby Oceanside. Two days of maneuvers ashore followed.

Interment Rites Held For Breedlove Infant

Graveside rites for Sheryl Lynette Breedlove, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rolland L. Breedlove, Medford, were held last Thursday afternoon in Memory Gardens Memorial park.

In addition to her parents, survivors include a brother, Jimmy; and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harld T. Breedlove, Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Turvey, Central Point.

Services were conducted by E. Atkins of the Seventh Day Adventist church. Conger-Morris funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

Substitute Clerk Examination Slated For Local Postoffice

Federal Civil Service announced this week through Postmaster George Evans that an examination for substitute clerk in the Central Point postoffice will be held.

The examination is being held to fill a vacancy here. Wage scale is $1.71 an hour.

Applicants must actually reside within the delivery of the local postoffice or be bona fide patrons of the office. Persons employed in the Central Point office will be considered bona fide patrons of the office.

Application forms are available from Postmaster Evans.

Applications must be filed with the Director, 11th U. S. Civil Service Region, 302 Federal Office building, Seattle, 4, Washington, not later than October 31.

Isaacs Attends Two-day Workshop

Richard C. Isaacs, manager of the Central Point branch of the First National Bank of Portland participated in a two-day workshop on money, finance and economic trends in Portland on Friday and Saturday, according to C. B. Stephenson, president of the bank.

Managers of all 70 First National branches in Oregon were on hand for the session.

Leaders in the various phases of banking and business took part in the program, including Dr. Emerson P. Schmidt, director of economic research of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, Washington, D. C., and Louis B. Lundborg, vice president of the Bank of America.

No hunting and no trespassing signs at Central Point American.

Wreck Hurts Fatal To Floyd Pence, 45

Floyd Pence, 45, Route 1, Jacksonville, succumbed last Wednesday evening, October 5, to injuries received in automobile accident the previous Saturday evening at the Pine street-Highway 99 intersection in Central Point.

Funeral services were held Saturday, October 8. The Rev. Norman K. Tully, pastor of the Jacksonville and Central Point Presbyterian churches, officiated.

Mr. Pence is survived by his wife, his parents, four brothers and three sisters.

Adams Return Home From Eastern Trip

Mr. and Mrs. George Adams of Ash street in Central Point returned home last Saturday after a five weeks visit with their son-in-law and daughter at Paut-uxent River Naval Base, Maryland. While there they were evacuated to safer ground during one of the hurricane threats.

They were accompanied home by Mrs. Adams' sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Art Kelly, of Lima, Ohio. The Kellys will spend several weeks visiting in this vicinity.

Three Pay Court For Traffic Slips

Three violations of traffic law were heard in Central Point recorder's court during the past week.

Horace F. Knight of Medford paid a $5 fine October 6 on a charge of failing to stop at a red light. Fritz F. Rumble of Central Point paid a $5 fine Oct. 8 for not having an operator's license and Leo. K. Potter, of Route 2, Medford, paid a $5 fine October 10 for failing to stop at a red light.

DRY YOUR CLOTHES Electrically!

FLUFFY—Like Fleecy Clouds

You'll just love the fluffy softness of towels and chenille... the clean luxury of all your laundry, when it's done in a modern dryer... Linens come out spotless, with no worries about soot or smoke. No more stains from weathered clotheslines... in fact, no more clothes-lines or back-breaking work hanging up the laundry and taking it down again.

Best of all you make your own drying weather with a clothes dryer. Wash day is any day (or night), rain or shine, winter or summer. You can plan your work-week to suit your own convenience.

"SEE YOUR ELECTRICAL DEALER"

THE CALIFORNIA OREGON POWER COMPANY

A Western Company owned and operated by Western People

CAR OF THE WEEK
1954 FORD
Customline
 Heater.
 Exceptionally clean.
$535 down
 Low Down Payment
 And Easy Bank Terms
STEVENS
AUTO SALES, INC.
 "Your Friendly Willys Dealer"
 505 N. Central
 MEDFORD