

Hughes Open Motel Cafe

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hughes of Medford Wednesday opened the Motel Cafe on Front street.

The cafe has been operated by Mr. and Mrs. Jay Varner, who last week moved to the Mill Cafe.

Previously Mrs. Hughes had been employed at the Red Streak cafe and at the Silver Grill. Her mother, Mrs. Myrtle Randleman of Rogue River is assisting.

They plan to offer 24-hour service in approximately two weeks.

Fourth Grandson Born in Eugene

A2/c and Mrs. Darrel Shieler of Eugene, son and daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Shieler of Central Point, are parents of a son, Jeffery Craig, born October 1.

The young lad, born at Sacred Heart hospital in Eugene, weighed seven pounds and nine ounces. He is the first child for A2/c and Mrs. Darrel and the fourth grandson for Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Shieler.

A2/c Shieler is stationed with the air force on Okinawa. He is a radar technician.

HOME TO WASHINGTON

Mrs. Ada Horsley of Washington, D. C., left Central Point Friday, October 14, to return to her home. She has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Iva Copinger, and other relatives for the past two months. She was called to Central Point by the sudden death of her brother, Arthur Copinger of Central Point.

Church Conference Held at Cold Hill

By Adah Jones
GOLD HILL — The quarterly conference under the direction of Rev. Merideth Groves, superintendent of the Eugene district of Methodist churches was held at the Community church last Wednesday night. Mr. Groves showed slides of churches over the state and also new parsonages and educational buildings under construction.

Mrs. Lawrence Smith was elected first lay member and Mrs. Ferd Jones reserve lay member.

Groves stated that at the present time there was no one available to take the place of Rev. George Hatch, Gold Hill minister who died recently.

The possibility of buying a house or building a parsonage was discussed.

Sunday was layman's day with Glenn Bowen, lay leader in charge and George Goodman of Medford giving the sermon. The choir of 14 girls under the direction of Mrs. Norman Gail, with Mrs. Paul Molloy assisting and Mrs. Grace Bruce, pianist, furnished the music.

SPECIAL SPEAKER — The Rev. William S. Deal, evangelist and author, is a special speaker at revival services being held each evening at 7:30 p.m. at the Pilgrim Holiness church. Reverend Deal is Pacific Northwest superintendent of the church. Special music is under the direction of the pastor, H. James Kreider. Meetings will continue through Sunday, October 23.

Table Rock Club First Meeting Scheduled Friday

By Mrs. Ray Doran
TABLE ROCK — The first meeting of Table Rock Community club will be held at 8 p.m. Friday, October 21, in the school house.

The Hallowe'en theme will be carried out in both decorations and refreshments. Everyone is welcome and encouraged to attend.

It is a common meeting ground for all good neighbors and should be relaxation after the strenuous harvest season. Program committee is hard at work, so come and see what this year will hold.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hull left last Thursday for San Francisco. They returned home Sunday, October 16.

Jonnie Hardin was an overnight guest at the Don Wheeler home Tuesday and Wednesday. His mother, Mrs. Milo Hardin, was an overnight guest at her sister's home, Mrs. John Dickey, at the same time.

Bill Bishop and Don Mark left Saturday morning to hunt for a week in eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Hill and children were visitors at Table Rock Sunday school October 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brewer and family of Roseburg were weekend guests of cousins, the Milford Vanderpools on Modoc.

Roger Dale Sharp will spend the week with his grandparents, the Ray Dorans, while his mother is substitute teaching in the Central Point schools.

Each lady is asked to bring one-half dozen doughnuts to Community club October 21. Don't let the ghosts take over this meeting. Let's keep our community alive!

Modoc Orchard finished their season's work Sunday and the packing house will finish about Tuesday.
