

Large Crowd Out To Willow Springs Potluck, Meeting

By Mrs. Jim Holler
WILLOW SPRINGS—Willow Springs Community club held their meeting and potluck Saturday night. There was a very large crowd and lots of good eats. Several new residents attended and enjoyed it all, especially what a good time is had at these meetings.

The next Community meeting will be Saturday night, December 17. It will be the annual Christmas program. There will also be the 50 cent Christmas gift exchange, so come one and all and give Santa a busy time passing out those gifts.

Willow Springs Home Extension Unit will hold their meeting at the school house at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, December 9. The subject will be "main dish meals." There will also be a Christmas gift exchange.

Visitors at the L. C. McMahan home were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Simpson of Roseburg. Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Miller of Grants Pass stopped over for a visit recently with Mrs. Julia Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Christie and family spent Thanksgiving day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Christie, of Rogue River. Thanksgiving evening was spent with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kezer, of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Ward and daughter had Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Elgins in Medford.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bower and son, Eddie, of Medford, went to potluck at Willow Springs with the Everett Youngs Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Mainwaring and family and Mrs. Mainwaring's mother, Josie Morris, spent Thanksgiving with his brother, Don Mainwaring, at Wimer.

The Everett Young family spent Thanksgiving in Jacksonville with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Morgan.

Those enjoying Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bezoff were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Arnett, of Klamath Falls and his brother, Gene Bezoff, of Happy Camp, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Nagle are the proud parents of a baby girl who arrived Tuesday morning. The Nagles have two boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Weiss had Thanksgiving dinner at the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Don McCollough and Steven in Griffin Creek.

The Archie Purdys went to her sister's home for their Thanksgiving dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Neumann of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith are now at home from their vacation trip up through Washington state.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lane of Klamath Falls were visitors at the Jim Holler home for Thanksgiving. Then the Lanes and Hollers motored to the Smith river for the weekend to do some steel-head fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hallett have just returned from a trip through California where they visited several of Mrs. Hallett's relatives. First they visited her son, Donald Frazier, at Los Molinas, then they went to Davis and visited a brother and family, W. E. Bass, then to Hayward to visit another brother, J. D. Bass.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Parent are back home from McCall, Idaho, where they were called by the death of his mother, Mrs. Katherine Pepper Parent. Mrs. Parent was known by several in this community. All of her children were there, six sons and a daughter.

Masonic Orders Hold Go-To-Church Night

Go-to-church night was observed Sunday, November 20, by members of the Masonic orders in Central Point.

The event was held this year at Central Point First Presbyterian church. The Rev. Norman K. Tully delivered a message on the Lord's Prayer.

Present were members of Job's Daughter, Eastern Star, Masons and DeMolay.

The church circle served punch, coffee and cookies after the service.

Dusenberry Passes At County Home

By Ada Jones

Cal Dusenberry, long time resident of Gold Hill, passed away Tuesday evening at the County home south of Medford. Mr. Dusenberry had been in poor health for several years but had been suffering very much the past few weeks making the transfer to the home necessary. His five children with their families all live in this area. Burial services will be at Conger Morris on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wills of Klamath Falls and Mr. and Mrs. Alva Walker enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Delos Walker on Thanksgiving day. Mr. Wills and Mrs. Delos Walker are brother and sister. Mr. and Mrs. Alva Walker are parents of Delos.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lockwood returned last week after spending a month visiting in Southern California and Bay region. While at Bakersfield, relatives honored the Lockwoods on their wedding anniversary by giving them a banquet and reception at the home of Mrs. Lockwood's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Dodenhoff. Several brothers, sisters and other relatives from the surrounding towns of Covina, El Segunda, Huntington Park and Barstow, were present for the affair. The Lockwoods also visited in San Francisco area and with Mrs. Lockwood's relatives at Santa Rosa.

Mrs. Florence Livingston left last week for Portland to visit her daughter. She traveled with Mr. and Mrs. Olav Lokkin, who were returning to Stanwood, Wash. after looking after business interests in Gold Hill.

Mrs. Madge Dorman has returned to her home in Gold Hill after being with her son and family in Astoria the past month.

The family of Merril Garold Davis of Gold Hill is receiving the heartfelt sympathy of kind friends and neighbors since the drowning of Mr. Davis on Sunday, Nov. 20 in the Tolo area. Davis and son, Dick, were duck hunting on the Rogue when the their boat capsized. Dick managed swim ashore but his father was not able to make shore. The body is still unrecovered. Mr. Davis has had narrow escapes before and knowing the water he was able to get out. The river being high and swift at this time made swimming very difficult.

Nancy McKay Picked Busy Beavers Prexy

Nancy McKay was elected president of the Busy Beavers 4-H Cooking club at their meeting held Saturday, November 26, at the home of Mrs. McKay.

Other club officers elected for the coming year are: Elaine McKay, vice president; Sharon Thompson, secretary; Sharon McDowell, song leader and Bernadine Sharp, program chairman.

The club members planned a Christmas party for Friday, December 9, during this meeting. Pat Striplin, reporter

Theta Rho Girls Make Foam Cushions For County Home

A group of Beta Chi Theta Rho girls and advisors of the Central Point club met at the home of Mrs. Ralph Burkhart Friday, November 25, to sew on the foam rubber cushions for the Jackson County Home.

Fifteen of the cushions were completed. The club plans to finish 100 cushions for the home.

At the November 23 meeting plans were also made to visit the Ashland club on December 6 for their initiation.

Ping pong was played after the regular meeting and refreshments were served by President Dorinda Glenn, who also presided over the meeting.

Last week, the Misses Dorinda Glenn, Barbara and Cheryl Swanson visited the Theta Rho club's adopted grandmother, Ida Henderson, at the Mitchell Sanitarium in Jacksonville. They brought her a gift from the club in observance of her 82nd birthday on Sunday, November 20.

On November 18 34 girls and their chaperons attended a skating part at the Rogue Valley ball room with the Ashland club.
