

Willow Springs New Year's Eve Party Scheduled

By Mrs. Jim Holler

WILLOW SPRINGS — Don't forget the big New Year's eve party and dance this Saturday night, December 31, at the Willow Springs school house. There will be favors and noise makers for all. Card games can be enjoyed by those who do not care to dance. There will be a smorgasbord served during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Nagle and family went to San Francisco for the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Duncan spent Christmas with their daughter and grandson, Mrs. Dortha Gustason, in Grants Pass.

Those enjoying the Christmas holidays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bezoff were Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Arnett, parents of Mrs. Bezoff, and a brother, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Arnett and family, all from Klamath Falls, and Gene Bezoff of Happy Camp, Calif, a brother of Jack's.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ellis spent Christmas day with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ellis in Sams Valley.

Visitors over Christmas day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Ward were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Elgin and family of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Purdy had Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Pinwell and son as Christmas visitors. They are from Eugene. Delbert is Mrs. Purdy's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Christie and family spent Christmas eve with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Christie in Rogue River and Christmas day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kezer in Medford.

The Everett Young family and Marion Young had Christmas dinner with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Morgan, in Jacksonville. Others attending the dinner were Mrs. Elizabeth Bowler, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Morgan and family of Klamath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Morgan and family of Medford.

Visitors over the holidays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hallett were Mrs. Hallett's son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Frazier, of Medford.

Gene Jones Win GH Xmas Contest

By Adah Jones

GOLD HILL — The lighting contest sponsored by the Gold Hill Lions club had a number of entries but rain prevented more effort in the first contest of this type in Gold Hill.

The judges, H. D. Force, Mrs. Paul Molloy and Dr. Stanley Brown, placed the Nativity scene at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Jones as first.

Second place winner was decorations at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Gilman and third place to Mr. and Mrs. Delos Walker.

Honorable mention, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Al Finke and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Stienmetz.

Keizur Named To Legion Post

William B. Keizur of Central Point was recently named to the National Education and Scholarship Committee of the American Legion.

Keizur, member of Myers-Holland post of Central Point, is the only committeeman appointed in the state of Oregon. Keizur will pass on all applications for scholarships awarded by the American Legion in Oregon.

Men from each state are named to the committee to make up the national organization.

COVERED DISH SUPPER

At 6:30 p.m. Thursday, January 5, at the First Presbyterian church, a covered dish supper will be held. The annual meeting will follow including reports of the year, election of officers and other church business.

Cub Scouts Get Awards During Christmas Party

The monthly pack meeting and Christmas party for Pack 40, Cub Scouts of America, was held Tuesday evening, December 20, in the library of the Central Point Junior High school.

A. D. Van Horn, assistant cubmaster, was master of ceremonies. George Ray, committeeman, was in charge of the award ceremony.

New Cub scouts receiving the Bobcat pins were Raymond Munn, Jody Van Horn, Tommy Dew and Terry Ash. Wolf badges were awarded to Tommy Lees, Danny Mainwaring, Ronny Wallace, John Yoakley and Eddie Burkhardt. Steve Davis received his Bear badge and Keith Simmons his Lion badge.

Gold and Silver arrows were given Robert Snook, Keith Simmons, Donald Workman and Gary Whittle.

One year service stars were awarded to the following boys: Keith Simmons, Randy Pinney, Darryl Summerfield, Oren Pollock, Donald Workman, Gary Whittle, Leslie Dewey, Gary Josephson, David Kimball, Larry Meyer, Dennis Ryerson, Ronald Stith, Charles Taylor, Dean McCalvey, Jimmy Dodd, Dennis Ray and Robert Danielson.

A Christmas tree was decorated by the Cubs with ornaments that they had made as projects at their den meetings. A canned food donation was given by each den to be distributed to the needy.

A sack of candy and nuts was given to each child and scout after the program.

TO CALIFORNIA

Mayor and Mrs. Donald E. Faber left Monday for California.

They planned to attend the East-West game at San Francisco and possible the Rose Bowl game at Pasadena. They are expected home next Thursday.
