

Capacity Crowd Enjoys Party At Willow Springs

By Mrs. Jim Holler
WILLOW SPRINGS—An over-capacity crowd attended the Community club New Year's party at the Willow Springs school house Saturday night. Dancing was the main event with both square and round dancing being enjoyed.

Card tables were set up for those who did not dance. The door prize was won by Miss Sandra Prom and the card game prize by Del Newman. A wonderful smorgasbord was served during the evening. Everyone had a grand time and with the entry of the new year, all hoped for a happy, prosperous and peaceful year ahead.

HEU Set Meeting

Willow Springs Home Extension Unit will hold their next meeting on Friday, January 13, at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Archie Purdy on BlueJay Lane in Grant acres. The meetings formerly have been held at the Willow Springs School house. The subject for this meeting will be the art of pressing new fabrics and the project leaders will be Mrs. Lola Vogle and Mrs. Marie Smith. There will be a potluck luncheon. Child care will be provided and those desiring information on child care may call Mrs. Ethel Holler, NO 4-2034.

Holiday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mainwaring were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Mainwaring, Renton, Wash.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Ward over New Year's were Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Brown of Redding, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Nagle and family have returned home from their vacation trip in California. They visited her grandmother, Mrs. Christina Key, in Hayward, Calif., and her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Larvis in Miltilas, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Weiss had three of their children home over New Year's. There were Mr. and Mrs. Don McCollugh and Steven; Mrs. Allen Waterson and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Weiss and son.

Visitors at the Jack Bezoff home over New Year's were old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foster of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cota have been on the sick list for several days but are now improving.

Visitors over the holidays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Joyce, of Centralia, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Weiss motored to Crescent City, Calif., Monday to visit a daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lees.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Gairson and family and Mrs. Garison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Detell, visited her grandparents,

Mr. and Mrs. Stacy Nelson, in Roseburg.

Butch Gustason of Grants Pass spent this past week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Duncan.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharon Wight are now at home. Mrs. Wight has been teaching school in Prineville. She is getting a transfer to one of the schools in this vicinity.

New Year's visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Young were her mother, Mrs. J. O. Morgan, of Jacksonville, a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Bower, and Eddie, and a brother, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Morgan and family of Klamath Falls.

Cubs to Conduct Weeklong Drive

Cub Scouts of Central Point Pack 40 will hold their bottle drive all through the coming week. A. D. Van Horn, assistant cubmaster, announced earlier this week.

The young Scouts plan to collect discarded soft drink and other bottles throughout the town in a house-to-house canvass.

Money earned in the drive will be used for pack activities. Portions of the money will be allotted to each den and to individual boys.

Person who would like to give bottles to the Cubs may leave them at the Van Horn home, 154 South 4th street.

Game Commission Slates Assemblies

Two special assemblies will be held at Crater High school Thursday, January 12, by the Oregon State Game Commission.

The assemblies are held annually to report on some phase of game development and conservation in the state. Assemblies will be held at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. A lecture and movie is planned.

The public is invited to attend the sessions.

PLUMBERS FINISH WORK

Plumbers completed work at the new fire hall-library building yesterday. A prime coat of paint has been applied to all wood surfaces in the building. The converter unit for the heating plant has not yet arrived from the manufacturer.

"Mechanical Cow" Helps in Fund Drive

Eagle Point—Members of the Eagle Point FFA, seeking a fund-raising project this year, found it with a "mechanical cow" installed at Eagle Point High school.

Since installation, through cooperation with the Milk Producers' League, the boys have marked up daily sales ranging from 53 to 158 half pints per day, about 84 percent of this being a jazzed-up version of old bossy's product, chocolate milk.

Girls to Hear Talks On Armed Forces

Representatives from all branches of women's armed forces units will meet with Crater High school girls next Tuesday afternoon, January 10.

Members of the services will talk to the girls about opportunities and careers available in the armed forces.

FORMER LOCAL GIRL

Mrs. Fred Hale, wife of the Grants Pass pilot who has been in the news recently, was a former Central Point girl. Her maiden name by which she will be remembered here was Bessie Milton. She graduated from Central Point High school with the class of 1932. The Miltons owned a home on Freeman road and Bush streets, in addition to other property.

Adult Mechanics Class Postponed

The adult education class in farm tractor and farm truck repair and maintenance has been postponed until 8 p.m. Tuesday January 10, according to word from Leonard Kunzman, Crater High school ag instructor.

Those who had signed up for the class failed to attend forcing postponement.

Kunzman reported that class openings are still available for interested persons. Those wishing to join the class should contact him before next Tuesday evening.

Members of the class will be allowed to bring tractors and trucks into the shop for actual instruction. D. R. "Sonny" Hendrickson will instruct this group.

Jim Smith Joins Ferguson Office

J. W. "Jim" Smith began work this week as a real estate salesman out of the office of W. W. Ferguson, local real estate broker and insurance agent.

Smith, who is known in this area, worked for Ferguson about two years ago in the same capacity.

LETTER OF APPRECIATION

I wish all my friends to know that I am getting along as well as can be expected, and wish to thank all of you for the beautiful cards, flowers, gifts and telephone calls. These things are most sincerely appreciated and it is nice to know that I have so many such lovely friends thinking of me.

It will be quite sometime before I will be able to have visitors, but when I can you will be most heartily welcome.
