

Crater Teachers Report Plans For Summertime

Summer jobs, more schooling and just plain vacations are the plans reported for the summer vacation months by faculty members at Crater High school.

Teachers announced the following plans:

Miss Marjories Anderson will take a trip to Rapid City, South Dakota, and into Canada. Mrs. Carol Ash will join her husband and son in Butte Falls, where he is a district ranger. They plan several horseback trips into the remote parts of the district.

Mrs. C. B. Bates will take a two weeks workshop in Eugene and the rest of the time keep house and enjoy her new baby daughter. Miss Martha Boshears will take a long rest after the wedding of her nephew on June 17. She will also take a few hours work in Ashland and take short trips to the coast.

James Gay will start building a new house in Central Point and later on in the summer will take a trip to the Puget Sound region of Washington. Mrs. Ethel Fleischer will have company all summer and will be taking them to points of interest in the valley. Later in the summer she will make a number of short trips in Oregon.

William Hall will work and fish. Mrs. Hall's father from Phoenix, Arizona, will be visiting and then they plan a trip to the Willamette valley. Miss Carol Harris plans to find a job and to enjoy garden work at home. She will go to Springfield later to visit her parents.

Warren Holbrook plans a two weeks trip to Los Angeles and will be employed at Big Y Feed & Seed for the remainder of the summer. Mrs. Bonnie Bayley has bought a trailer house and plans to vacation around the country with her husband and son.

Ed Knapp is now on a three weeks vacation in Wisconsin visiting relatives. After his return he will work at Hawthorne pool in Medford.

Leonard Kunzman will be working with the FFA and plans to attend state ag teachers convention at Wallowa for one week. He will also try to squeeze in a few days vacation.

Don Lacy plans to attend the University of Oregon. Clarence Mellbye will be employed at Donna Timber Products. In August he and his family will travel to Carmel, Calif., to visit relatives. Clarence Miller will go to Eugene to sell his home so he can move his family to Central Point.

Charles Moore will be working and getting in as much fishing as possible. John Smock will attend summer school at SOCE in Ashland and later go to Seattle, Wash., to visit relatives. Robert Sutherland will work as a life-guard at Hawthorne Park and attend morning summer school sessions at SOCE. Later they will take a three weeks trip to Iowa to visit relatives.

Leonard Warren will be driving school bus for Girl Scouts day camp and various other projects. He plans some yard work. Relatives are expected to visit and later the family will take a short vacation trip. Miss Geraldine White's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Olson of Daytona Beach, Florida, formerly of Blackwell Hill, arrived June 3 to visit this summer. Guests from Minneapolis and Chicago are expected later in June and she will take them on trips throughout the valley. In August she plans a fishing trip to Puget Sound.

Mrs. Frances Willett will attend summer school at Oregon State. She will entertain relatives and at the present time her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Henry McKinney from Baker, are guests. After summer school she will work at Hawthorne park.

Mrs. Helen Monsey will work, starting June 11, as one of the leaders at Girl Scout day camp. In July she will vacation along the coast to San Francisco. Mrs. Reno Offutt will take care of the Ross Motel and take correspondence courses this summer.

Norman Carothers will attend summer school at the University of Oregon and take a trip east in August for a month. He plans to play a little golf in his spare time. Principal Arthur Straus plans to work a little and relax a little this summer.

MOVE TO PORTLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Locke and daughter moved last week to Portland to make their home. Locke, who has been ill, will take treatments at the veterans hospital there.

HOME FROM EAST

Mrs. Guy Tex returned to her home last week from an extended visit to New Jersey. She reported a very pleasant visit with relatives and friends.

Hammond Named To Styles Group

Mrs. Maxine Hammond, third vice president of the Oregon Beauticians Association, affiliate of National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association, received honors at the recent educational show in Portland when she became a member of the state styling committee.

The committee is composed of approximately 30 of the leading hair stylists in the state. To become a member, one must pass a rigid examination.

These stylists are kept abreast of the times by their styles director, Jack Parks, one of the three members of the National Official Fashion Council in Oregon.

Mrs. Hammond will attend an official meeting Sunday, June 17, at the Jack Parks Studio in Eugene. She also just purchased Rolland's Studio of Beauty in Medford.
