

Lady Lions Ask Donations For New Kindergarten

Central Point Lady Lions are asking for donations of the following items for the new kindergarten to be started this fall in Central Point.

For the girls: two dolls and doll clothes, one doll bed or cradle, one play stove, play dishes, play equipment for house-keeping, small dolls either rubber or plastic, doll house furniture.

For the boys: trucks or cars, trains and play farm animals, games such as number puzzle games, tinker toys, inter locking plastic blocks, and 100 Golden Books, two soft rubber balls and children's records and a clock.

Donation of any of these items in good usable condition, would be appreciated by the club. The Lady Lions are donating chairs for the kindergarten.

Items may be left with Mrs. Bill Saxbury at 263 South Second street or telephone Mrs. Bill Abbott evenings, NO 4-1140, or Mrs. Dick Korner, NO 4-2261, and arrangements will be made to have them picked up.

Jaycee-Ettes Hold Social Meet, Doll Awarded to Benston

Central Point Jaycee-Ettes held a social meeting last Wednesday evening, August 8, at the home of Mrs. Cecil Sharpe in Central Point.

Miss Jaycee-Etta, the club's doll and her complete wardrobe, has been awarded to Nichola Benston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Benston of Central Point. Mrs. Melvin Anhorn, chairman of the project, made the announcement. The doll was displayed at the Jaycee booth during the Jacksonville Jubilee.

The next meeting of the group will be held Wednesday August 22, at the home of Mrs. Don Hanscom on Blue Moon Ranch, north of Central Point on Highway 99.

Those present were Mrs. Dale Bartley, Mrs. Bill Colley, Mrs. Gay Hallett, Mrs. Don Squire, Mrs. Lee McNew, Mrs. Don Hanscom, Mrs. Homer Billups, Mrs. Don A. Faber, Mrs. David DeArmond, Mrs. Cecil Sharpe, Mrs. Melvin Anhorn and Mrs. Bruce Turner.

Guests for the evening were Mrs. Alan Bishop and Mrs. Melvin Frick.

Beauticians Plan Potluck Picnic

Members of the Oregon Beauticians Association and their families will hold a potluck picnic at 10:30 a.m. Sunday, August 19, at Casey State park on the Rogue River.

This event is to be a corn feed. Everyone is asked to bring his own table service.

Relief Corps Ladies Plan Basket Lunch

Women's Relief Corps of Central Point will meet in the city park on Tuesday, August 21.

A basket luncheon is planned at noon. All members of the corps are urged to come out for this meeting.

TR Homemakers Work on Fair Project

Table Rock Homemakers club met at the home of Glenna May Brown recently.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Glenna May Brown. We did not have the flag salutes this time. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Carol Meyers.

We had invited Marjorie Hattan, county extension agent, to come out to see our work, but she was unable to attend. Everyone is busy getting their work finished and ready for the fair as this was our last meeting.

Refreshments were served. Anita Pierce, reporter

ORGANIZE JUBILEE
The first meeting of the Central committee appointed by the participating organizations in the forth-coming Jubilee to be held in Cave Junction over the three day Labor Day holiday was held on Wednesday evening at the Legion hall and various projects were discussed in more detail.

It was definitely decided to concentrate most of the activities at the VFW grounds and the adjoining Spieth's field Anyone interested in having a booth or concession should contact Phil Keller of the Rural Fire Dept, or Don Adams, general chairman—Illinois Valley News

ROAD SIGN PLANNED
A huge sign is planned in Crescent City at the junction of 101 and 199, proclaiming "Stay on U. S. 101". The sign is to be a promotional venture initiated by two Brookings motel operators, Merrill Bullock of the Crest Motel, and Jack Hagen of the Bonn Motel in conjunction with the Brookings-Harbor Chamber of Commerce.

The outdoor sign, which will be 12½ feet high and 42 feet long, will be multi-color with a scene from the Oregon Coast painted on. The artists sketch shows a portion of Harris Beach state park.—Brookings Harbor Pilot

SUPERVISOR STRICKEN
Mrs. Marlene Grout took over as supervisor at the Curry General Hospital on Monday, after illness forced the resignation of Mrs. Dorothy Sauer, former manager, some two weeks earlier than had been planned. Sharing the responsibility of the superintendent's position with Mrs. Grout will be Nina Stansell, laboratory technician.
Mrs. Sauer, who had expected to remain on duty until August 10, was stricken last week for the second time while on duty at the hospital, and left for her home at Rio Dell, Calif., on Thursday.—Curry County Reporter.

TO PROBE D.A.
Jackson county's Bar Association has appointed a committee, headed by Attorney James M. Main, to investigate complaints that the district attorney's office has violated the civil rights of some individuals.

The Times learned that at least three attorneys are preparing complaints for the committee to investigate and one of them has arranged for a parade of witnesses to appear.

Another complaint deals with a single individual, allegedly held in jail for four days without being brought to court for a hearing.

The third complaint, it was understood, deals with the preliminary investigation of the Billy Nunn murder case.—Rogue River Times

CONTAMINATION SHOWN
Testing of three natural bathing places near Myrtle Creek indicates contamination in Myrtle creek and the South Umpqua river above the accepted standards of purity, according to a report from the Douglas county health department.

Samples were taken from the dam site on North Myrtle Creek, from Myrtle creek in the park area and from the river by the railroad bridge, favored swimming spots.—Myrtle Creek Mail

PLAN NEW SCHOOL
Completed plans for a new 7th and 8th grade elementary school and an adjoining new multi-purpose gymnasium for School District 54C are expected this month.

At a meeting of the local school board Monday night, the new construction projects were discussed by board members with Howard Glazer of Dougan & Heims, architects.

The current schedule calls for completed plans to be ready so that an advertisement for bids can appear in the August 23 issue of Western World. If satisfactory bids are received, the Board plans to proceed with the sale of $280,000 in bonds authorized by the people in an election March 10, 1956, and plans to start construction this September, with occupancy due by the fall of 1957.—Bandon Western World.
