

HOLIDAY COMINGS AND GOINGS

RICHARD GANT IS VISITING PARENTS

Richard Gant of the Air Corps is home visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gant of East Evans Creek, R. 1 Box 16B.

His brother, Gene, is also home.

The Gants purchased the Buntin place in Nov. moving here from San Fernando, California.

Mr. Gant is a machinist and engineer and can do all types of construction work.

Mrs. Gant's brother, D.H. Sawyer, lives in Gold Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Meyers and family of Meyers Hardware in Rogue River spent the Christmas with Mrs. Meyers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Davis at Oakland, Ore. It was a family reunion with 19 being present.

Mrs. Meyers' sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. R.R. McEver, drove from Ft. Bliss Texas for the occasion, stopping off at Rogue River to spend a day and a half with the Meyers.

G.W. Burbank, Grant Officer of the B. & E. spent the holidays with Mrs. M.L. Thayer and her family of Boots Creek. Mr. Burbank flew from Duluth to Los Angeles and drove to Oregon from there.

According to the Evans Valley School Newslette parents were on the move during the holiday season, travelling in the company of their children.

Dick Wehren and family are planning to attend the Rose Bowl game.

Judy Deckelman and family will spend two weeks in Modesto, Calif. with Judy's sister, Arline Eib.

Keith Johnston and family are to spend their vacation at Paradise, Cal. at Keith's grandmothers home.

The Tex Hardins and Henry Baker will vacation in Los Angeles

Honor Students at Evans Valley

Honor students in the four upper grades of the Evans Valley school chosen for outstanding progress in attitude and school work were:

Craig Williams, Lola Poitvent, Jim Johnston and La Vera Hardin.

According to the Evans Valley Newslette, two new students registered at the Evans Valley school are Eddie Jackson in the 8th grade and Barbara Jean Jackson in the fourth grade.

Both are transfer students from the Howard school near Medford.

The Jackson family has purchased the Rendal place and plan to build in the spring.

Miss Mary Harter spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Harter. Miss Harter came by plane from Long Beach, Calif. where she is a dental assistant to one of the outstanding oral surgeons of Southern California.

Fred Knifer of Caspar, Wyo., returned to Rogue River last week. Mr. Knifer had been in Rogue River on and off for about 20 years.

He had been in Caspar where he had decided to stay. But three weeks of promising jobs had to be turned down, and he had to head in Rogue River.

Mr. John A. Dixon has come from Portland for the holidays. Mr. Dixon is associated with the Fowler Manufacturing Co. in the engineering department. His family plan to join him in Portland as soon as they can dispose of their highway property here.

Mr. and Mrs. K.O. "Bud" Hunter, formerly of Rogue River, surprised their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Cameron, with an unexpected visit from Eureka. They plan to spend the holidays here.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Our best wishes are extended to the following students of Evans Valley who celebrated birthday during December:

Keith Damon, Larry Ulbricht, Sharon Stevens and Dick Rader.

(The Times will publish each month as they are available, the birthdays of local people.

Col. and Mrs. Ted Hopkins and children, Patricia and Teddy, spent Christmas in San Francisco, Calif. with the Col.'s cousin William J. Webster and wife, who are currently here in Rogue River.
