EVANS VALLEY 4H CLUBS

The combined 4H clubs of Evans Valley met at the Le-Roy Buck home January 23rd.

The Happy Hoppers, Happy Hoers, and Home Economics Clubs were represented.

The forty present enjoyed games, a taffy pull, and singing accompanied by Mrs. E. J. Butterfield at the piano.

FORMER RESIDENTS VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Christophersen of Brookings, South Dakota, were recent visitors in Rogue River.

The Christophersens formerly owned the present Henry Corbin property on the Old Stage Road.

IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Roscoe Hargitt of Rogue River is in the Josephine General Hospital.

FLOOD CAME IN FRONT DOOR and took out the back of this summer cottage on the beach by Emil's Rogue View Inn. Why the water ignored taking out the front was still a moot question but the stand near the small dance floor was wreck as were the "Him" and "Her" dressing rooms for swimmers.

CIVIC CLUB

The Rogue River Civic Club met January 23rd for a social meeting. Mrs. Hazel White, president, presided.

Fourteen members attended, and two guests, Mrs. Mabel Brooks and Mrs. Harold Wehren who spoke on the March of Dimes Drive.

Mrs. C. B. Willoughby was reported ill.

MINNEAPOLIS VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Strobel of Minneapolis have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Corbin of Old Stage Road.

NEW CHOIR ROBES

The girls choir of the Gold Hill Methodist Church were to make their initial appearance in their new choir robes Sunday, January 18th.

The robes were made by Mrs. Ethel Mays, and the girls are very proud of them.
