MARCH OF DIMES

March of Dimes assistance will enable the Jackson County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis to meet immediate costs of patient-care requirements, in spite of the exhausted local treasury, it was announced early this week by Harry Chipman, Chapter Chairman.

The Jackson County Chapter has applied to the New York office of the Foundation for a grant of $2,726.93. This request was made necessary because of the tremendous cost of the care of county patients during the past year, which exhausted the chapter funds and left a deficit in this amount.

The grant will be made through the Epidemic Aid Fund of the National Foundation, which is reserved for such purposes. It will enable the local chapter to pay all accumulated bills up to December 31st, thus making possible the start of the new year with a clean slate.

"While we continue to fight this battle with all the material and human resources at our command," Chipman said, "it is reassuring to know that the National Foundation stands solidly behind us. Nothing could better demonstrate the teamwork and the solid partnership which exists between National Headquarters and the Chapters of the National Foundation. When polio strikes in force, no community, large or small, contains sufficient resources to stand alone in this fight."

The chairman declared that this is one of the basic reasons why March of Dimes funds raised in each county are shared on a 50-50 basis with Headquarters of the National Foundation. And he urged that everyone drop an extra dime in whenever they passed one of those "polio" cans placed in many locations around the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Butterfield have moved onto the Hardesty place on West Evans Creek.

Josephine Loeffler was appointed to assist her in her work, and Grace Bruce was appointed musician.

Mrs. Jones also stated the meeting dates have been changed to the second and fourth Wednesday afternoons immediately after school.

Refreshment committee for the evening included Lillie and Nina Dusenberry, Mildred and Penny Wright and Nora Wait.

Nannie McKay
Publicity Chairman.
