"I THINK THE NECESSITY OF BEING READY INCREASES .. LOOK TO IT!"

These are the prophetic words of a great leader, spoken almost a hundred years ago. They are, however, as significant today as they were then. Being ready is wise advice in any phase of human endeavor; in financial matters, it is a necessity. Look to your future, and being now to make it secure. Let us help you plan a sound savings program!

ROGUE RIVER, GOLD HILL WILL HAVE VOICE IN SELECTION OF NEW GOP CHAIRMAN

Rogue River and Gold Hill will have an important voice in the county's politics, a larger voice than has been the areas lot for many moons, when a new GOP chairman for the county is chosen.

Chairman of the five-man committee named to choose the successor to Mrs. Bereth Hopkins, Medford, resigned, is Col. Ted Hopkins, Rogue River and on the committee with him is Mrs. Ed Bolt of the Homestead on the Rogue, Rt. 1. Gold Hill.

Other members include Don Whalen of Medford, George Lennatt of Ashland and Mrs. L. Scott of Jacksonville.

The committee will meet at the call of the chairman.

HOME EXTENSION UNIT

Mrs. Cecil Johnson announces that the Gold Hill Home Extension Unit will meet February 9th at 8:30 p. m. following a brief regular meeting of the Amethyst Rebekah Lodge.

It will be held at the Odd Fellows Hall in Gold Hill, and the public is invited to attend the demonstration to be given by Miss Eula Wintermote, County Extension agent.

The project "Keeping Up to Date with Textiles" will include the showing of the newest fabrics of Orlon, Nylon and other synthetics. She will tell how to read the labels on new fabrics and how to clean them. Materials will be on display from 7:30 pm on.

HOUSE WARMING

A pot-luck luncheon and house warming was held last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Norton on West Evans.

Those attending were Mrs. Bruce Brandon, Mrs. Harris Stone, Mrs. Emil Stromberg, Mrs. Lewis Northrup, Mrs. F. H. Nelson, Mrs. Sam Smith, Mrs. Charles Jackson and Mrs. Neily Sund.
