

MORE THAN 500 PEOPLE last Saturday attended the opening of the Rogue River Feed & Farm Supply store on Highway 99, just north of the bridge junction. The above picture shows the attractive display of lilies and other flowers and the paintings from the night class of E. H. Cota which were on exhibition. Free coffee and waffles were served and there were balloons and candy for the children. Owner Frank C. Stamm and Manager Bert Quigley greeted the guests.

ATTEND OPENING

W. S. C. S.

The W. S. C. S. of the Gold Hill Community Methodist Church will hold their regular meeting on April 14th at the church. They will have as guests the Wilderville W. S. C. S. There will be a potluck at noon furnished by the ladies in Gold Hill.

Scores of people attended the spring opening Saturday of the Rogue River Feed and Supply Store on Highway 99 north of the bridge junction. With a remodelled store, many plants and flowers and an exhibit of paintings from the night class of E. H. Cota, to say nothing of free coffee and waffles, people visited the store from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. Frank C. Stamm, owner, and Bert Quigley, manager, were on hand to greet each visitor and to explain the services being offered by the new establishment. Stamm, formerly of Oakland, Calif., bought the store some weeks ago but waited for the remodeling to have his spring opening.

DINNER GUESTS

Mrs. R. J. Philbrick and Sharon of Grants Pass, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Parr of Rogue River, and Mr. and Mrs. James L. Smith and two daughters of Susanville all dined with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fauley of Rogue River recently. Mrs. Philbrick and Mr. Smith are Mrs. Fauley's daughter and son.
