JOBS DAUGHTERS

Jobs Daughters have returned from the three day convention which they attended in Portland.

While there they visited Winkie Newnham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newnham, who is in the Good Samaritan Hospital where he is being given further treatments. They say he is getting along fine and that he will have braces for his legs in about two weeks. He said that he wished they would move the hospital to Medford so that all of his old friends could visit with him.

Crater High is going to put on a play to raise money to buy Winkie a wheel chair and other things he needs.

The Gold Hill Garden Club will hold a cooked food, and plant sale Saturday April 18th at Lester's Market in Gold Hill.

CUT BUDGET

COUNCIL TRIMS BUDGET BY 17 PERCENT, SENDS IT TO CITIZENS COMMITTEE

Taxes in Gold Hill next year will not be higher; may be lower.

This heartening news came this week on the heels of a city council budget meeting at which the figure was trimmed $3,120 or about 17 per cent.

If nothing is added to the budget, it would mean a tax reduction. However, two possibilities loomed. One was that the citizens budget committee would add to the budget, as was done last year, or that the water filtration situation might require additional funds.

City Recorder Ferd Jones reported that this year will see the last payment on the water and sewer bonds, a figure of $2500 plus interest. This will leave only the fire truck bonds to be paid off and a start on the se will be made.

The budget committee of citizens, which will meet on April 27th, is made up of Ralph Bell, Wilbur Martin, Merritt Davis, Paul Thompson, Floyd Lance and Paul Molloy.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION SHOW

The pupils of the Gold Hill grade school are putting on a physical education show Thursday night, April 16th at 8 p. m. in the school gym.

Admission price will be 50¢ for adults and 25¢ for children. The money is to be used for gym equipment, and it is hoped everyone will be there.

FOOD SALE SUCCESS

The baked food sale that the Gold Hill Health Club had Saturday April 11th was a success as far as selling all the food, but there was a shortage of food on hand due to so many being ill and unable to cook. Even so they took in $30.
