VOL. 1.

MARSHFIELD, OREGON, SATURDAY, JUNE 14, 1879.

NO. 24.

Over and Over Again.

Over and over again, no matter which way I turn, I always find in the Book of Life some lesson I have to learn.

An Expedition into the Jungle.

Colonel Grant was not disposed to allow our expedition to leave India without some honors from the field, and it was proposed that we should have some pig-sticking.

How to Make a Fresh-Water Aquarium.

The fresh-water aquarium or drawing-room fish pond is a pleasing and interesting ornament for a city or suburban town.

The Business Outlook.

The month of May has opened with the most flattering prospects, far more so than the most sanguine anticipated three months since.

A Desirable Invention.

Apparently one of the most feasible, and, in many respects, the most desirable improvements in heating railway coaches, is the device of Mr. Collins.

An Elopement Turns Up.

Lieut. A. H. Fletcher, of the United States Navy, who, on February 18, eloped from Baltimore with the daughter of his boarding-house keeper.

French Society and Politics in the Provinces.

The establishment of the republic in France has been attended with so many remarkable political incidents that we have been apt to overlook that aspect of the subject which most strikes a foreign resident.

A Tour of the Rebel Prisons.

Mr. P. Henry O'Connell, of the firm of Caskin, O'Connell & Co., of this place, showed us this week a pair of handcuffs which he had just received from his comrade and fellow-prisoner, Mr. William Benty, of Indiana.

Progress at Jerusalem.

Recent letters tell us that there are more signs of business and social activity at Jerusalem now than at any time since the days when it was the capital of Israel's kings.
