

Be Still. BY ALICE GARY. Come, bring me wild plums from the valleys, Abide with the fire of the sun— No, poor little plums!

Going to a Chowder Party. When a man has received sentence of death, I believe that he is thereafter a dead man, in the eye of the law, whether he be executed or not.

Barbara Freitelie. There has been considerable controversy over this venerable dame, whom Whittier has immortalized in song, as "Bravest of all in Frederick Town."

The Nihilists in New York. The following communication was furnished to the New York Herald as a copy of one addressed to Mr. Pierre Kartchewsky, the Russian consul in that city: G. C. R. R.

Josh Billings' Philosophy. The man who gets bit twice by the same dog is better adapted to that kind of business than any other.

Fruit Trees. I find that lime, wood ashes and old iron put around the roots of declining fruit trees, have a very beneficial effect.

Imitating Senators. A correspondent writes, "I read with interest the article published in a March number of the Companion, describing the pages employed in the Capitol at Washington."

What He Wanted. Col. Davy Crockett's original exhibitions of character and manner in Washington have been the theme of many a story, and matter for many a hearty laugh.

A Novel Way for a Wife to Increase Her Allowance. In England marriages between persons possessed of much property are often preceded by marriage settlements, in which an ample supply of pin money is secured to the wife.

The Death of Gen. Wolf. In a graphic and interesting sketch of the history of Quebec, which Mr. H. N. Fairbanks lately prepared for the Bangor (Me.) Whig, he thus retells briefly the story of the death of Gen. Wolf.

A Doctored Honor. Do not seek to be intrusted with your friend's secret; for no matter how faithfully you may keep it, you may be liable in a thousand contingencies to the suspicion of having betrayed it.

A facetious correspondent calls the frog the Dutch nightingale.

Barbara Freitelie. There has been considerable controversy over this venerable dame, whom Whittier has immortalized in song, as "Bravest of all in Frederick Town."

The Nihilists in New York. The following communication was furnished to the New York Herald as a copy of one addressed to Mr. Pierre Kartchewsky, the Russian consul in that city: G. C. R. R.

Josh Billings' Philosophy. The man who gets bit twice by the same dog is better adapted to that kind of business than any other.

Fruit Trees. I find that lime, wood ashes and old iron put around the roots of declining fruit trees, have a very beneficial effect.

Imitating Senators. A correspondent writes, "I read with interest the article published in a March number of the Companion, describing the pages employed in the Capitol at Washington."

What He Wanted. Col. Davy Crockett's original exhibitions of character and manner in Washington have been the theme of many a story, and matter for many a hearty laugh.

A Novel Way for a Wife to Increase Her Allowance. In England marriages between persons possessed of much property are often preceded by marriage settlements, in which an ample supply of pin money is secured to the wife.

The Death of Gen. Wolf. In a graphic and interesting sketch of the history of Quebec, which Mr. H. N. Fairbanks lately prepared for the Bangor (Me.) Whig, he thus retells briefly the story of the death of Gen. Wolf.

A Doctored Honor. Do not seek to be intrusted with your friend's secret; for no matter how faithfully you may keep it, you may be liable in a thousand contingencies to the suspicion of having betrayed it.

A facetious correspondent calls the frog the Dutch nightingale.

Barbara Freitelie. There has been considerable controversy over this venerable dame, whom Whittier has immortalized in song, as "Bravest of all in Frederick Town."

The Nihilists in New York. The following communication was furnished to the New York Herald as a copy of one addressed to Mr. Pierre Kartchewsky, the Russian consul in that city: G. C. R. R.

Josh Billings' Philosophy. The man who gets bit twice by the same dog is better adapted to that kind of business than any other.

Fruit Trees. I find that lime, wood ashes and old iron put around the roots of declining fruit trees, have a very beneficial effect.

Imitating Senators. A correspondent writes, "I read with interest the article published in a March number of the Companion, describing the pages employed in the Capitol at Washington."

What He Wanted. Col. Davy Crockett's original exhibitions of character and manner in Washington have been the theme of many a story, and matter for many a hearty laugh.

A Novel Way for a Wife to Increase Her Allowance. In England marriages between persons possessed of much property are often preceded by marriage settlements, in which an ample supply of pin money is secured to the wife.

The Death of Gen. Wolf. In a graphic and interesting sketch of the history of Quebec, which Mr. H. N. Fairbanks lately prepared for the Bangor (Me.) Whig, he thus retells briefly the story of the death of Gen. Wolf.

A Doctored Honor. Do not seek to be intrusted with your friend's secret; for no matter how faithfully you may keep it, you may be liable in a thousand contingencies to the suspicion of having betrayed it.

A facetious correspondent calls the frog the Dutch nightingale.

Barbara Freitelie. There has been considerable controversy over this venerable dame, whom Whittier has immortalized in song, as "Bravest of all in Frederick Town."

The Nihilists in New York. The following communication was furnished to the New York Herald as a copy of one addressed to Mr. Pierre Kartchewsky, the Russian consul in that city: G. C. R. R.

Josh Billings' Philosophy. The man who gets bit twice by the same dog is better adapted to that kind of business than any other.

Fruit Trees. I find that lime, wood ashes and old iron put around the roots of declining fruit trees, have a very beneficial effect.

Imitating Senators. A correspondent writes, "I read with interest the article published in a March number of the Companion, describing the pages employed in the Capitol at Washington."