

THE COAST MAIL.

SATURDAY, - - Nov. 22, 1879.

HORSE THIEF CAPTURED.—Last Tuesday a stranger was seen stopping in a vacant house on Webster's place opposite this town, and his conduct was such as to excite suspicion that he was the man who stole Davlin's horse in Douglas county. Early Wednesday morning, Constable Noble and Marshal Rhodes, went over and took him into custody. He at first stated that he had come on foot from Eugene City in two days, but on being given to understand that his case was understood, confessed that he was the man who stole Davlin's horse. On being asked where the horse was, he said it was in the pasture, and the officers found it turned into an enclosure near by. He told all about how he "got away with" the Myrtle Point fellow. He said he was not a natural thief; when he stole, he always took something worth stealing. He wanted to go into California with the horse where he said it would sell for $150. Mr. Noble left with his prisoner for Roseburg on Wednesday morning. He is doubtless booked for a term in the penitentiary.

HIGH WATER.—Friday of last week the waters in Brewster valley and in the canyon beyond, were higher than they had been known for six years previous. A few of the smaller bridges were washed away, and the road was considerably damaged in several places. There was very little delay in the mails, however, as the drivers are men who do not stop for trifles. Jones made the crossing in the canyon when the water ran over the wagon in a rapid current, and Patty, on this end of the line, went through with the mail when his horses were compelled to swim the sawle in Brewster valley. Mr. Clough, proprietor of the route, was in the canyon in person on Saturday, repairing the road, and travelers are taken through on the usual time.

DEBATES AT SUMMER.—They have a flourishing literary society at Summer which meets regularly on Friday evening of each week. Last week they discussed the compulsory education question, and this week they had the question, RESOLVED: That the press has exercised a greater influence toward civilization, then the pulpit. Sherwood chief on the affirmative and Dully chief on the negative. The officers of the society are, Hon. J. B. Dully, President; S. Parsons, Vice President; John Ellsworth, Secretary; S. B. Sherwood, Treasurer; D. Sherrard, Janitor.

MAIL SERVICE.—The contract for carrying the mail from Hermansville to Port Orford was awarded to Warren, of Wisconsin, who is also contractor for the route between Roseburg and Coos Bay. Week before last Mr. Clough of Roseburg went down to Hermansville and contracted with Mr. J. C. Morris, of the south fork of the Coquille to perform the service, and it is supposed to have been commenced on the 10th. The route is a hard one, but Mr. Morris will carry the mails on time if it is in the power of man to do it.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION.—Notices announcing the regular annual election for municipal officers in this town, are posted; it takes effect on 2d approach to the Recorder's office. The only interest we feel in the election is that the management of our corporate affairs may be continued in the honest and prudent course by which they have thus far been distinguished. The present officials are men worthy of re-election, and should any change be made, we do not doubt that the intelligent and law abiding voters will see that it is not one that will lessen the harmony or efficiency of the organization.

"MOORE'S HOODLUMISM."—Last Monday Mr. Henry Schultz, a quiet, inoffensive person engaged in selling pictures at Empire City, had his face besmeared with tar by Ed. Moore. It appears that there was no provocation for this dastardly assault, and it is surprising that the victim would submit to such an outrage without forcible and immediate resistance. He made complaint before Justice Bull of this place, on Wednesday, and Moore was arrested, found guilty and fined $15. He at first refused to settle the bill, but being taken by Mr. Rhodes to Empire and turned over to Mr. McIntosh, the jailer, he paid the fine and was released.

LITERARY.—The exercises of the Literary Society, which took place at the academy last Wednesday evening, were well attended and were said to be quite entertaining. These entertainments will probably continue during the winter, and will be a source of both pleasure and improvement to those who participate.

COAL DISCOVERY.—Mr. J. G. Callahan, a farmer living near Coles valley, in Douglas county, in digging a well a short time since, passed through a bed of coal six feet in thickness, at a depth of 49 feet. This may prove a valuable discovery to the Umpqua people.

Thanksgiving next Thursday, at which time the turkey crops is supposed to be harvested.

THE EMPIRE SCHOOL HOUSE.—The Arms of last week says the school house in Empire City "was mostly built by a non-resident—a citizen of San Francisco." We presume the person referred to is the proprietor of that paper, who at that time, and for several years after was a resident of Empire City—Mr. Luse contemplated himself a committee, and raised by subscription about sixteen hundred dollars, furnished lumber from his mill, nails and paint and other material from his own store and built the house and presented it to the District in consideration of about six hundred dollars more, which was raised by a tax. Sums from five to twenty-five dollars or more were donated by persons living away, and without property in the district, feeling doubtful, that their liberality would be amply repaid in the gratification of occasionally feasting their sight upon this magnificent and munificent monument to the man's handicraft, which we are shocked to hear called "the disgraceful looking school building."

ACCIDENT.—As James Higgins was returning from Newport with a horse and buggy from Anderson's stable, one day this week, on one of the narrow bridges a short distance from town, the vehicle came in contact with a cow. The cow assumed a position that crowded the horse and buggy close to the edge of the bridge—so close, in fact, that the buggy and driver went wrong side up off the bridge upon, or into, the soft marsh below. The horse and cow managed to stay on the bridge, and the former becoming detached from the buggy, proceeded at once homeward, without waiting for the rest of the party. The damages were but slight.

REVIVAL IN BUSINESS.—There has been an increasing demand for lumber in San Francisco for some weeks past, and now comes the natural result, as may be seen from the following dispatch: SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—At a meeting of the Lumber Dealer's Exchange yesterday it was decided that the price of rough lumber should be raised $4 per 1000 feet, and other qualities of lumber were advanced in price, though not exactly to the same extent. The new rates take effect at once.

PROGRAMME.—The programme for the entertainment next Wednesday night is not fully made but the discussion will be upon the question: RESOLVED: When lawless hoodlums become too bold or reckless to be controlled by law, it is proper for the people to form a vigilance committee to suppress lawlessness and protect law-abiding citizens. Wm Hall leads the affirmative and A. G. Brown the negative. Reading by Mr. McCormack and recitation by Forest Lang.

LIVELY.—There has been a fair display of shipping along our water front during the week; four schooners discharged ballast at the several wharves, and the Bay steamers have been passing to and fro as if the pleasant weather brought an increase of business.

BEAUTIFUL WEATHER.—The present week has been distinguished for its fine weather, frosty nights and warm pleasant days. It would pass for Indian summer in the Middle States. We hope for more of the same kind.

FOR PORTLAND.—Jay Tuttle left on Wednesday for Portland, where he will remain during the winter to complete his medical course at the Willamette University.

ERROR.—The young lady who eloped with and married Mr. Jones of Camas Valley, an account of which has been going the rounds of the press, was named Bingham, not Benham.

LAUNCHED.—A dispatch from captain Carroll reports the Steamer Deacon safely launched and alongside the wharf at Ellensburg. She is expected in Portland about the 1st proximo.

IMPROVEMENT.—The Warden Bros. are making some changes in the interior of the Central Hotel, which will add much to its convenience.

A QUEER CROSS.—Mr. H. G. Crow was lately married to Miss Ida Gosling, of Looking Glass.

WM. WALSH is clerking for a lumber concern at Seattle.

John Kenyon will probably return by the Guano to her next arrival.

THOS. P. SHERIDAN, one of the solid men of Roseburg, has been spending a few weeks on the Bay.

E. G. GRINDROD, Esq., will teach the winter term of school on the south fork of Coos river.

ALL of the bar harbors along the coast, including the Columbia, have been blocked during the late heavy storms.

ABRAHAM'S new brick store in Roseburg has one of the finest stone fronts in the State; it is a credit to the little city.

I. H. ATKINSON is engaged to teach school at the forks of Coos river, to commence the first Monday in December.

MR. FROD of the Western Star has been quite sick recently, but we are pleased to chronicle his convalescence.

THE several parties who went from this county to Roseburg to attend to business relating to their land claims returned last Sunday.

A PRIVATE letter from the Sixes mines says there will be considerable work carried on there during the winter; work on the tunnels has been suspended on account of want of drainage.

Prosperous.
Roseburg is one of the most substantially prosperous towns on the Coast. There is no "excitement," none of that "rush" which so frequently precedes a relapse into dullness and apathy; but the appearance of the place is that of the steady and permanent prosperity which legitimately belongs to the business centre of a flourishing agricultural region of country. The business men of the place are not of the class that build beyond their means for ostentatious display, but several of the firms who have grown wealthy there, are abandoning the old one story frame buildings in which they have done business for many years, and removing to new structures, some of which in appearance will compare favorably with the best class of houses in the larger cities. The public houses are all well patronized, and the hotel accommodations will soon have to be increased to meet the demand. The growth of the place may be stimulated or retarded by circumstances in the future, but we know of no town which has greater assurance of an uninterrupted and permanent advancement.

Ordinance No. 30.
The people of the town of Marshfield do ordain:
Sec. 1st. That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to keep open, have or maintain a bawdy house, or a house of ill fame, within the limits of the town of Marshfield.
Sec. 2d. That any persons violating the provisions of the foregoing section, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by fine not less than ten or more than one hundred dollars.
Sec. 3d. That it shall be the duty of the Marshal of the town, or any two members of the Board of Trustees, to file complaint in the Recorder's court against any person or persons who are generally reputed to be keeping a house in violation of section 1 of this ordinance, and to subpoena such witnesses as may be acquainted with the facts or reputed upon which such charge is made, and common fame and reputation shall be maintained competent testimony in support of such charge, to the extent that the same may be used under the provisions of the general laws of this State.
Sec. 4th. Each day that any house of the character described in Sec. 1 of this ordinance shall be maintained within the town, after complaint shall have been made of the same, shall be deemed a distinct offence.

Important to Land Claimants.
The Register and Receiver of the Land Office at Roseburg have received instructions from the Commissioner of the General Land Office to require settlers to furnish testimony on their final proof in homestead and pre-emption claims by disinterested persons. The testimony of relations or members of the family of the settler will be rejected except in cases where no other witness can be had, and in such cases the affidavit of the settlers must show the reason which he has for offering such proof. A similar rule applies in all land contests, except the testimony of a relative will in all cases be received subject to corroboration by the testimony of disinterested parties.

DANGEROUS WEAPONS &c.—We are informed of an exciting game of bluff played between two usually quiet citizens of the Coquille. Mr. J. F. Moore went to the premises of Thos. Whitted for the purpose of levying on personal property to justify a judgment in Justice's Court. Mr. Whitted met him with a formidable-looking pistol, and after exhausting the vocabulary of vile epithets drove him from the premises. Whitted is under arrest, and we understand will have his examination before Justice Bender, at Myrtle Point, next Monday.

THE telegraph line, which had been down between here and Roseburg for about a week, was again restored to working order Thursday evening.

ATTORNEYS Owen and Hamilton have gone to the Coquille to attend a suit originally involving a road tax, but now become important in consequence of the accumulated costs.

A LOBBER is in San Francisco looking after his business interests. If the demand for lumber will justify he will put his mill in operation on his return to the Bay.

WE noticed the presence of our friend Heller, one of the thrifty farmers of the north fork of the Coquille, on our streets Tuesday.

THOS. R. SHERIDAN, County Clerk of Douglas county was on the Bay this week, but took his departure for San Francisco by the Arctica.

WHEN it doesn't pour, the ladies of Empire City—some exceptions—are playing croquet. If it is too moist over head they are engaged indoors working monogram stockings.

WINCHESTER'S little steamer, the Wasp, appears to be getting a fair share of business, and her captain takes particular pains to attend promptly to orders and to accommodate his patrons.

THE Board of Trustees last Tuesday evening enacted an ordinance to prevent the maintenance of houses of ill-fame within the corporate limits: We print the ordinance in another column.

MR. LANDRETH and the members of his family, desire to express, through the MAIL, their grateful acknowledgments for the many acts of kindness by their neighbors and friends during the days and nights of watching and anxiety which preceded their bereavement.

BORN.
In Marshfield, Nov. — 1879, to the wife of David F. Young, a daughter, In Marshfield, Nov. — 1879, to the wife of George Jouice, a daughter. In Marshfield, Nov. 21st 1879, to the wife of B. F. Catching, a daughter.

Simpson and Miss Annie M. Blake, both of that town. Mr. Simpson has the congratulations of his many friends on the Bay.

DIED.
On Coos river, Nov. 20th, 1879, Mrs. Martha Landreth, wife of C. Landreth, Esq., aged 63 years and 8 months. Mrs. Landreth was born in Grayson county, Virginia, came with her husband to Oregon in 1853, and has been a resident of Coos county since 1860. She was an intelligent and amiable lady, who, by her many good qualities endeared herself to a large circle of friends. She was the mother of several sons and daughters, who were near to comfort her in her last illness, and who, with her bereaved consort, will ever remember her as their most faithful friend and greatest earthly benefactor.
