CONTRACT TO FURNISH MATERIAL-On Thursday of this week the contract for furnishing the lumber for the cribs to be used in constructing the jetties was awarded to E. B. Dean-& Co., of this place. The cribs will be built here and the work will probably be carried on under Mr. Smith, the gentleman now representing Col. Gillispie. The contract calls for $9.50 per thousand feet for lumber. which includes the towing of the cribs tled. There will probably be twenty or thirty men employed on the cribs, and work will be commenced as soon to the necessary from can be procured. of the Coos river quarries is too light for the purpose of filling the cribs, and contract for this branch of the work prove mutually satisfactory. has not been let; there are several source that hids would be received.

LAND MARK GONE, -- The late storm brought down the little fir tree on the on the Bay during the early portion of C A Peterson sand hill below North Bend, which the week. has been known ever since the country was settled as the "Lone Tree." It stood at the angle in the channel and, in a critical condition since. has been a prominent land-mark to assist navigation. The place where it stood should be marked by some other monument at an early day, as a guide to navigators of the bay.

It had been transferred by consent of parties to Justice Sengstacken's Court at Empire City, and was dismissed for want of jurisdiction. Mr. Hazard's course in this case: will be universally approved.

OVERBULED .- The motion for the removel of S. S. Mann from the position of administrator of the partnership estate of Flanagan & Mann, was overrulled by Judge Nosler, after a somewhat protracted discussion of the teetimeny, there appearing no grounds the business has been conducted.
