Supt. Public Schools.

2d Judicial District. J. F. Watson

Judge, District Attorney, S. H. Hazard

Coos County.

County Judge, J. H. Nosler Commissioners, Sheriff Clerk. Treasurer, . Assessor, . School Superinterdent, T. C. Mackey Coroner,

Curry County. County Judge.

J. A. Cooley Cemmissioners. Sheriff, Clerk, School Supt., Walter Sutton M. B. Gibson Treasurer, Thos. Cunningham Coroner,

A Moderate People.

The Argony. In the slowness of their trains the Norwegians excel the Dutch, and yet the latter, traveler, may place themselves as the head

Mrs. Aster's Diamonds. A Washington correspondent says: and were perfectly indifferent as to fifty miles of splendid navigation and was the case with Mr. Kellogg, the most endeavors to gain Leonidas, by red in one of our popular saloons the subject. Mrs. John Jacob Astor is still enjoy. whether we were in the Coos or Co- its extensive valleys of fine farming question ought to be considered as fi making him magnificent promises, other afternoon. A couple of boys ing the air of this city, and the ac- quille rivers, for in either case we land. cepted estimate for the value of the would reach the settlements at the Our canoes were landed at the large seat is concerned. If he does any him master of all Greece, if he would hugh pile of chips and greenbacks jewels worn by her at the President's Umpqua or at Port Orford in two or Rancherie broadside upon the beach. thing afterwards which would justify come over to his party. Leonidas re- were soon piled up between them. At diplomatic reception has been placed three days. The night passed off A large force of Indians, painted all his exclusion from the Senate he jected his proposals with scorn and last one called the other and he showat $1,000,000. A private policeman quietly and next morning we set out kinds of colors, and armed with bows ought to be expelled for that reason. Indignation. Xerxes having after- ed three queens. The other quietly agement of the Erie railway have, afhas guarded her doorway since she early-this was the 14th day of Sep- and arrows, long knives and war clubs his credentials ought never be called wards written to him to deliver up his turned over three kings. "Take the ter giving the subject long consideracame, and in citizen's clothes shadow- tember, 1851. The day was an unusu- occupied the bank before us, and at in question again. It ought to be so arms, Leonidas, in a style and spirit money," said the patron of the ladies, tion, determined on adopting the ed her at every fete. Two mounted pleasant one. We made good pro- once surrounded the canoes, (on the held in the Senate as in courts of jus. truly laconical, told him to "Come and as quietly as though asking the other narrow gauge all along their road, policemen followed her carriage each gress with a favorable tide down land side,) while a score or more of tice that adjudicated points must take them. Nothing remained but to to take a drink. The man of many With this purpose in view they have evening that she ventured forth in stream, and all hands were happy canoes, also well filled with armed In- stand as settled. If Mr. Kellogg may prepare to engage the Lacedæmoni- kings reached over to take the pot, for some time been making arrangeher glory, and for this care and an. As we advanced, ranches became more dians, suddenly appeared in the riv- now be ousted, there is no reason why ans. Xerxes first commanded his Me- when one of the other players internovance it is a question whether there numerous and many "fish weirs" er from the little slough and bayous, Mr. Butler should not also be ousted dian forces to march against them, fered and claimed that one of the ing their rolling stock to suit the is sufficient reward in being stared were in the course of construction, and from above and below. Yet the if two or three Senators have changed with orders to take them all alive and kings in the hand of the winner beout of countenance and exciting the some of them reaching across the majority could not believe there was their minds as to the right to his seat bring them to him. The Medes were longed to him, unless there were five hand a large number of narrow guage envy of the groundlings. The mil- river, indicating that the salmon seas danger. Yet Hedden and myself in- since he and Kellogg were both declar- not able to stand the charge of the in the pack, as he laid down two of freight and passenger cars, and all of lion dollars in portable form have on was at hand. Arriving at a point sisted upon shoving out our canoes ed lawful members of the Senate. Grecians; and being shamefully put them when the heavy betting began, their locomotives built during the Marriage Brokers.

Marriage-brokers are quite important business men in Genoa. They figures, personal attractions, fortunes, to the whites, for a portion of them etc. These brokers go about endea- had taken an active part in the fight

COAST

MAIL.

Vol. 2. MARSHFIELD, OR., SATURDAY, APRIL 10, 1880.

WRITTEN FOR THE COAST MAIL. HISTORICAL SKETCHES

NUMBER XIII.

JOURNAL OF L. L. WILLIAMS-CONTIN-UED FROM LAST WEEK.

J. F. Moore no hostile demonstrations had been should have been united.

qua, and the mouth of the Coquille Ryan, Hall, Murphy and Davenport ture at last drove him to give himself ate but one meal a day. for this merit or defect, according to the known of either the Coquille or Coos fully realizing the danger, entered a strong enough, I should have hanged sion; it was the king of the Bisaltse. forces of the East, to overwhelm and decency, committed on the Champs time, nerves and fancy of the individual rivers was that they emptied into the strong protest against it, deeming it myself to-day." But for his own con- Whilst all the other princes ran into crush a little country by the dint of Elysees, there can be no doubt left of the other European countries. But here since leaving the Coast at the mouth were already Indians enough in sight with the facts of the case, there was Xerxes, he proudly refused to receive ed that if they attempted to make the this monstrous charge are, like those all comparison ends, for while the Dutch of Rogue river, we felt quite certain to overpower and completely annihi- no evidence against the unhappy his yoke or to obey him. Not being success of the war depend in opposing of M. DeGerminy, two years or so ago, possess but a small territory sufficiently infor the time being, that we were upon late us the moment we should step on man; and his advocate made a futile in a condition to resist him with open numbers to numbers, all the Grecian unfit for publication, and are so filthy, tersected by lines; Norway, with its great the waters of the Coos, and in that shore. The Indians in the two canoes attempt to convince the jury that he force, he retired to the top of the at all. Nor is it probable that she will ever event, we intended to proceed north- refused to go past this point, and a was not Jonathan Gaydon at all, but mountain Rhodope, and Xerxes conbe much better off in this respect. The ward to the Umpqua settlements few of us insisted upon landing upon some morbid-minded, crazy creature, tinued his march through Thrace, sary to point out to Greece another of certain people, hitherto held up as land is so thinly populated that railroads On the other hand if this proved to be the south side, where to say the least who, out of a demented love of crimi- Macedonia and Thessaly, every thing means of deliverance, and these brave models of every Christain virtue, that could never pay. From the hilly nature of the Coquille, we would follow down we would be in no immediate danger. nal notoriety, was personating the giving way before him till came to the Lacedsemonians thought it became the tribunal disposed of the case with the country their construction would cost the Coast to Port Orford. The river The captain, so far overcome with murderer. The man's tale, however, strait of Thermopylæ. much, while the people are poor. And traversed one of the handsomest val- hunger and fatigue, thinking that so prinfully circumstantial, his detastly, the present mode of traveling is all leys of rich timbered bottom lands to there might be no danger, and the straits he was strangely surprised to in order to show the Persians how diffi- foreign infection, to the demoralizathey need. Time is of less consequence to be found anywhere upon the Pacific resenting that he understood a por utter failure of his counsel to prove find that about 4000, under Leonidas, cult it is to reduce free men to slavery, tion produced by bad foreign examthe Norwegian than to other people, because Coast, with a fine growth of myrtle, tion of their language, and from the that he was somebody else than Jona- were drawn up to dispute the passage. and to teach the rest of Greece, by ple, and I should be most glad to adthey have less to do. They do not rush maple, ash, etc., peculiar to the river inducements held out to us by a distance of the fury no alternation of the first theory, if it did not happen through life, as we do, for instance, giving bottoms of Oregon, and eventually play of fine looking salmon by the tive but to convict the prisoner. Bar- on the first hearing of his arrival, the perish. to one day the work of six. They breathe; will become an earthly paradise. As Indians on shore, prevailed upon all barons as was his deed, there must Grecians would betake themselves to A certain Lacedæmonian, being asthe remainder of the civilized world is, for the most part, breathless. If they have a hundred miles to travel, they can as well charge of the canoes manifested a de- a landing, and take the consequences wretched outcast. He had a con- to believe what Demaratus had told "Is it possible then, sir, that you can fined to that class of exotics which its devote a week to it as half a dozen hours; sire to camp, so we went on shore on of an attack; asserting that there science, at any rate, for it has been him from the beginning of his project, think of marching with a handful of fair partisan considers to be alone. or, if they cannot, they wisely stay at home. the north bank and camped under was no danger or we would have been the means of bringing him to the that at the first pass he came to he men against such a mighty and innu- without reproach. There is an im-So that traveling in Norway is very much some evergreens, where a spur of the attacked long ago. Hedden and my-gallows. what it was in England a century ago, A mountain reached down to the river. self strongly opposed this movement little slower and more leisurely, perhaps, We kept a strict guard as usual, dur- while several others gave their indiff now and then, for nowhere in Norway will ing the night, observing also, that the erent consent. Although the expediyou come across the fine sight of a coach Indians were equally vigilant. It was tion had been unfortunate from its in favor of unseating Senator Kellogg the Lacedemonians out of their enand four tearing up hill and down dale at understood that this was to be our departure from Port Orford, and much of Louisiana, has elicited much unfa- trenchments, and that they were diexpress speed. The average rate of pro- last night in the wilderness. The suffering had been incurred in conse- vorable comment even from the best verting themselves with military exgream is about four miles an hour; and, do breakers could be plainly heard as quence thereof, yet this proved to be class of the Democratic press, and it ercises and combing their hair—this enough." what you will, taking one thing with an-Their railways, by comparison, are not much early hour next morning would bring decision for our little band of explorpermitted to retain his seat to the themselves for battle. better- of stately speed, perhaps, but irri. us to the ocean, where clams, muscles ers; the first to ever traverse the Co- close of his term. The Richmond Xerxes, still entertaining some been more than a nine days' wonder, three or four miles from the Coast, so and landing upon the opposite shore. Two years and more have elapsed to flight, they showed, says Herodotus. The man of the queens rose up quietly past two years have been constructed and the universal topic for the first that the mouth of the river and the where the main body of Indians for since Messrs. Butler and Kellogg were that Xerxes had a great many men, and pulled out a murderous-looking for a narrow gauge road. Some time days in Lent were Mrs. Astor's dia ocean could be plainly seen over the the immediate present, at least, could seated, and it surely is time that their but few soldiers. The next that were bull-dog, which he placed in unpleased in unplease monds. Shut away in their cases and low, drifting sand hills, we at once have been avoided. But all our con- right to their seats should be considered, taking up the third rail on the main shortly to go with their owner to recognized it to be the Coquille river. siderations and discussions were sud- ered as settled. But a convincing Persians called the Immortal Band, and simply remarked, "Drop it." He line between Attica and Hornells-New York, the diamonds have had a We were near the end of our river denly closed, by an irresistible charge reason why Kellogg should not be which consisted of 10,000 men, and dropped it, and without another word ville, and all broad gauge freight will brief glory. Every one sighs for an navigation, and Providence permit- being made upon us from every side unseated is furnished by the News, were the best men in the whole army. other look at them, and some one has ting, we would soon bid good bye to by the Indians who numbered not less which clearly shows that Messrs But- But these had no better success than happened. vulgarly suggested that she exhibit our canoes, and the magnificent Co- than 150. Their plans were so well ler and Kellogg were both seated in the former. them for the benefit of the Irish fund. quille, whose torturous windings we laid, and the attack so sudden, that accordance with a distinct understand. Xerxes, despairing of being able to had followed so far, and would be Ryan, Holland, Murphy and Pepper ing between certain Republican and force his way through forces so determarching down the beach in the di- were instantly struck down with Democratic Senators that both were mined to conquer or die, was extreme- cratic voters in the interior of the rection of Port Orford. The Indians, numerous all along company except myself, were quickly no excuse for an act of bad faith, and resolution to take; when an inhabit- York City which, by its tone and temhave pocket books filled with the the river, increased in numbers as we disarmed. All this was done at the that the unseating of Kellogg would ant of the country came to him, disnave pocket books filled with the neared the month. It was now posi- first onset, and before any one had be such an act appears from the recovering a secret path, leading to an shall be the Democratic majority in different classes, with notes of their tively known that they were hostile time to fire a gun.

(To be continued) voring to arrange connections; and, at Port Orford in June last. We had Anour $600,000 was saved in the for 1651 regulated "appeal." "Men thither, which, marching all night, tration, but this year there are ample what the the prospect is for a price for mowhen they succeed, they get a commission of two or three per cent. upon character and disposition, while on the use of an improved drill. The inthe portion. Marriage at Genoa is our hunting expeditions prior to leav- ventor of the drill, who died recently themen by wearing gold or silver, tageous post. quite a matter of calculation, generquite a matter of calculation of the calculation of ally settled by the parents or relatives, who often draw up the contract bewho draw up the who often draw up the contract before the parties have seen one anoth- avoided an attack, and did not anticier, and it is only when everything is pate any great danger in making our government and were patented both or Taffany hoods or scarfs, which. arranged, and a few days previous to way to Port Orford. We were nearly in this country and in Europe. He though allowable to persons of greatthe marriage-ceremony, that the future husband is introduced to his in- labor-saving machinery, but notwith- yet we judge it intolerable in per- being told by the oracle that either cannot be induced to believe that tended partner for life. Should he ing much tattered and torn, while standing his inventions he never reasons of such like condition." Pen- Lacedemon or her king must necession and torn, while standing his inventions he never reasons of such like condition." find fault with her manners or ap- some of them could not boast of that lized even a comfortable competence alty, ten shillings for every offence sarily perish, determined, without the pearance, he may break off the match much. A wretched set of miserable from them owing to the difficulty of against this law. on condition of defraying the broker men we were indeed. Bare-headed, introducing them before the expiraage and any other expenses incurred bare-footed, hair long and uncombed, tion of the patents.

The Remorse of Conscience.

for men to be when in that condition. We firmly linked together by a bond London Telegraph. of friendship, not easily to be broken. eat except a small quantity of por curement of food was fully discussed. punishment these twenty years or his march; he had given orders for company or converse with him. poise hide during the day. Although For the first time, quite a difference more, though he managed to baffle his fleet to follow him along the coast, Xerxes lost in this affair above 20, stolen property, on whose proceeds Indians were seen by the hundreds, of opinion seemed to exist, when all the law during that time. From the and to regulate their motions accord- 000 men, among whom were two of "Lovelace," a gentleman from the made, and had it not been for the en- A large rancherie stood upon the plundered the house in which she ever he came he found provision and slaughter from disheartening his men, mestic expenses, but also the dreadtire absence of squaws and papooses, right bank of the river, a short dis- was left alone one quiet summer Sab- refreshment prepared before him, pur- he caused all but 1,000 of the bodies of ful fall from grace of a prominent they might have been easily mistaken | tance ahead of us, and perhaps about | bath morning in 1857, he has wander- suant to the orders he had sent; and the slain to be buried secretly, and dentist, also known as a burning and Delos Woodruff for frien lly Indians. But as the cir- two miles from the ocean, with a strip ed upon the face of the earth a con- every city he arrived at gave him a covered over with earth and herbs shining light in the Gallican Church cumstances were, it was certain that of level prairie or marsh land about science-stricken vagabond with the magnificent entertainment, which But the soldiers of his fleet, obtaining of the Follies Montholon, provided their disposition was hostile, and a half a mile wide between it and brand of Cain, not, perhaps, visibly cost immense sums of money. The permission to visit the field of battle, over by ex-Father Hayacinthe. Of that we were liable to be attacked at the timber north of it. [This is at imprinted upon his forehead, but as-A. M. Gillespie any time; hence the necessity of ob- the bend of the river above Hamb- suredly forever burning itself into his casion to a witty saying of a certain ed rather to discover Xerxes' littleness thing except that all sympathy is with serving the greatest possible caution lock's, and below Pershbaker's store. heart. The miserable wretch has citizen of Abdera in Thrace, who, of soul than to conceal the number of the bereaved parents; but when Mr. The mouth of Coos river was known Toward this ranch the Indians direct- been constantly haunted by the shad- when the king was gone, said, that the slain. to be about 20 miles south of the Ump- ed our cances. TVault, Doherty, ow of his horrid deed, and his self-tor- they ought to thank the gods that he The action of Leonidas, with his 300 plugs up teeth, but also plays the or-

Kellogg's Case.

they beat upon the beach below. An by far the most fatal and unfortunate now appears probable that he will be was the Spartan manner of preparing ords of the Senate.

The Battle of Thermopyles.

Rollin's Ancient History.

and other shellfish could be obtained. quille valley, and who were entitled Dispatch treats the subject as follows: hopes, waited four days on purpose to We were happy in our imagination, to all the honors of the first discovery | When a Schator is seated, especially give them time to retreat. And in and were rejoicing at the prospect, of its three principal branches, its when he is seated after a contest, as this interval of time he used his ut- in the wild and reckless West, ocur- some other and less nauscating nally settled as far as his title to the and assuring him that he would make got to bucking at one another, and a and telling them at the same time that they should sup together with Pluto Among the curiosities of crime, the Thermopylie is a straight or narrow they set up a shout of joy as if they Of Oregon's Southern Coast. While much blame might be attach- Chingford murder-now no longer a pass of mount Etna, between Thessaly had been invited to a banquet, and ing fresh examples, every day, of the ed to the captain, yet a hand of broth- mystery will deserve hereafter a and Phocis, only twenty-five feet broad full of ardour advanced with their corruption of good manners by evil ers never appeared nearer to each conspicuous place. Although the which therefore might be defended by king to battle. The shock was exceed-communications. At least, such other. We were all strangers when foul deed was done twenty-two years a small number of forces, and which ingly violent and bloody. Leonidas must be the cause of the wickedness we set out, but the state of feeling ago, it was only yesterday that the was the only way through which the was one of the first to fall. The ef- of which it is so often guilty, and cannot be described and can only be perpetrator had his guilt brought Persian land army could enter Achaia forts of the Lacedemonians to defend which, Mrs. Lucy Hamilton Hooper We embarked about noon on the realized and known by me 1 who have home to him. Jonathan Gaydon, who and advance to besiege Athens. This his dead body were incredible. At is disposed to maintain, ought only to 13th of September, and started on been similarly situated. We now has been sentenced to death for the was the place where the Grecian army length, not vanquished, but oppressed be found among benighted foreignour trip toward the sea. We passed realized the fact that much greater murder of Miss White, an inmate of thought fit to wait for the enemy; the by numbers, they all fell, except one ers. In my last letter, I told of the many Indians and large rancheries at caution should be exercised, and the the house of her brother-in-law, Mr. person who commanded it was Leoni- man, who escaped to Sparts, where he elopement of an American girl with a John Kenyon intervals along the bank, but singular question of our immediate future ac Small, a farmer at Chingford, on the das, one of the two kings of Sparta. was treated as a coward and traitor to Brazilian, and now I have to record R. C. Dement to relate, nothing could be obtained to tion in regard to safety and the pro- 21st of June, 1857, has not escaped Xerxes in the mean time was upon his country, and nobody would keep not only another American elope-day when he butchered his victim and ing to those of the land army. Where- his brothers. To prevent so great a Sunny South, managed to pay do-river was known to be about 20 miles were in favor of landing and trying to up to justice in a mood so desperate In the same country of Thrace there ness or despair, but was a wise and no shipers, got himself condemned to south of Coos river and about 30 miles obtain something to eat; while Hed- that in his confession to the police he was a prince who showed an extraor- ble action. Knowing that Xerxes three months' imprisonment and north of Port Orford. All that was den, Bush, Pepper and myself, more said: "If I could have got a rope dinary greatness of soul on this occa- was marching at the head of all the 8,000 francs fine for an outrage upon ocean. As we had traveled northward very imprudent to land, for there fession and the fitting in of his story servitude, and basely submitted to numbers, Leonidas rightly conjecture about his criminality. The details of

No. 15.

The Game in Deadwood.

Deadwood Pioneer.

A very characteristic incident of life the game went on as if nothing had then be sent from Attica via Avon.

The New York Vote.

clubs, while every other person in the to share the same fate. There can be ly perplexed, and could not tell what State must bear in mind that it is New and the Grant Locomotive Works, eminence which overlooked and com- the State. What the floating vote in manded the Spartan forces. He the city will do, cannot, as a rule, be THE laws of Massachusetts colony quickly despatched a detachment foreseen till a few days before regiscured for Mr. Tilden as it was in 1876. is largest bred, went down to half its former of the allies to retire, but stayed him- attached voters of New York who go up to 75 or 80c for a fair article, at the self with his 300 Lacedemonians, all drift on election days towards what East. It is also said that the unusually seleast hesitation, to sacrifice himself is not heartily supported by the sofor his country. The Spartans lost all called Tammany vote of the city. SENATOR EVARTS favors holding hopes of conquering or escaping, and These are simple matters of fact, and Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2 50 our voices sounded hollow and sepul
Susscribe for the Mail only $2

The Coast Mail

DEVOTED TO

ALL LIVE ISSUES

THE INTERESTS OF SOUTH-ERN OREGON ALWAYS FOREMOST.

The Development of our Mines, the Improvement of our harbors, and railroad communication with the Interior.

Rad Americans in Paris.

N. Y. Times

The American colony here is givment, mixed up with a charge of Crane, who not only pulls out and Spartans, was not the effect of rash- gan for the Follies Montholon worthem, the choicest soldiers of Greece, closed doors. Perhaps, as I have said, that, at least in the case of the denwould find his whole army stopped by merable army?" "If we are to reckon mense amount of crime in Paris, there a handful of men. He sent out a spy upon numbers," replied Leonidas, "all are misdemeanors without number, before him to view the enemy. The the people of Greece together would but if the statistics of both were ac-The report of the Senate Committee spy brought him word that he found not be sufficient, since a small part of curately compiled and attentively exarrears to its American element during the last 20 years. This, I think, will do on this subject, and, with the remark that people who live in glass houses should be careful about throwing stones, I can pass on to Narrow Gauge for the Erie.

Exchange.

Arrangements have been made to commence the change and carry it through with as little delay as possible. The company have also ordered thirty new locomotives from the Brooks Locomotive Works, Dunkirk, Augora Goats and Mohair.

The Willamette Farmer says: Those who own Angora goats will be interested to know mohair produced in the United States and have to import most of what they use, There seems no reason to doubt that there